sordid conditions under which girlhoboes live and die scarcely noticed by the every-day world around them. Ann Dvorak, as the governor's daughter, takes it upon herrelf to find out the underlying causes of this moral decay. Herself battered and beaten by the forces which constantly harass her companions with whom she associates incognito, she finally manages to assist her father in remedying many of the sore spots in the situation.

The close of the picture finds a new hope and a new optimism enveloping these haunted and hunted souls. With the government's blessing they are given an opportunity for rehabilitation and a chance to lead normal lives as respectable members of the community, Helen Mack and Lola Lane are seen as two of the denizens of the road whom Ann Dvorak encounters during her adventures. The co-feature, "21 Days Together" stars Laurence Olivier and Vivien Leigh in one of the outstanding romantic dramas of the vear.

Convention Sidelights

CHICAGO, July 15--(AP)-One Roosevelt already is at the Democratic national convention in an official capacity. He is Elliott Roosevelt, of Fort Worth, second son of the President.

Elliott is a Texas. delegate, but he expressed no opinion as to whether his father would be renominated. The state's delegation is instructed to vote as a unit for Vice President Garner for the presidential nomination.

"I haven't got a thing to say, Elliott told reporters, "except that the man who is nominated here will win the election."

Mississippi will cast only 18 votes in the convention, but it will take 99 delegates to do the job. Each person in the large group will have a fraction of a vote. One congressional district, with two votes, has 49 delegates.

Mis. Woodrow Wilson, of Washington, is the only former first lady at the convention. The Reses, auto-camps, ramshackle auto- publicans had two former president's wives at Philadelphia-Mrs. William Howard Taft and Mrs.
