

Today's Radio Highlights

11:15 a. m.. WMAL and WRC—Commentators gather around that table to discuss the latest Chicago developments of the Democratic Party. Baukhage, Earl Godwin, H. V. Kaltenborn and Raymond Clapper are the lads who'll be wiping the sleep from their eyes.

6:30 p. m.. WJSV—Al Pearce and his gang take to selling ice cream and satirizing radio in general. Whether this is all one skit or is separated into two—quite unnecessarily we wouldn't know.

7:30. WOL—Alfred Wallenstein conducts his popular Sinfonietta in a program not yet announced.

8. WJSV—"You Can't Brush Me Off" and "Anything Goes." the first from the current "Louisiana Purchase" and the latter from "Anything Goes." that Cole Porter delight of several seasons ago, are contrasted by the scholarly jazziana authority Johnny Green, pianist turned conductor.

9. WOL—Raymond Gram Swing, to whom we apologize with our most impressive genuflection for having called him Raymond G. Swift a while back, begins a half-hour of news dispatches from Mutual. His 15 minutes are followed by A. P. releases from tomorrow morning's Post and military data from Maj. Leonard Nason.

9. WRC—Life and love in a small-town radio station are dramatized by Don Ameche and Claire Trevor, who both live in fear of coughing on the cough-conscious cigarette hour.

9:30. WRC—Again, the red circle for this one: Quiz Kids. It's still the most novel program on the air, a sort of juvenile Information Please. Tonight artist Grant Wood comes to listen and offer a question.
