Cavarretta Snaps Ankle, Dodgers Moonlight Regatta Grimm Offers to Play

CHARLIE GRIMM

CHICAGO - (U.P.) - Charlie Grimm, one time manager and first baseman of the Chicago Cubs who now gets most of his baseball from his radio broadcasting booth, offered his services Friday night as a substitute for the Cubs' two ailing first basemen.

Glenn "Rip" Russell recently underwent an appendectomy and Friday Phil Cavarretta moved into the same hospital with a broken ankle. an X-ray revealed Cavarretta broke his ankle siiding into second base last Tuesday.

Owner P. K. Wrigley was interested in Grimm's offer. He inquired about Charlie's physical condition and Grimm replied:

"I've been working out every day the White Sox are at home. I can still catch and throw that ball around." Grimm was relieved of his managerial job in the midst of the 1938 season. His old teammate, Catcher Gabby Hartnett,

Drum Up 4th Feud

ST. LOUIS-(U.P)-The Brooklyn Dodgers hopped out of the frying pan into the fire today. In their gateway from Chicago Friday they drummed up a brand new feud and came here today to renew an old one with the Cardinals. The Dodgers now have four distinct and separate feuds in progress, as follows:

(1) The grudge feud with the Cardinals growing out of the Jeo Medwick "beaning" and the Durocher-Owen fight. 2) The eternal feud with their hated Polo Grounds' rivals, the Giants. 4) The pennant feud with the Cincinnati Reds, the one they most want to win.

Several players are likely to draw some stiff fines as a result of a brawl Friday at Wrigley Field, vhich developed over Passeau of the Cubs accusing Casey of the Dodgers of throwing at him in the eighth inning. They exchanged sharp words after a pitch came close to Passeau's head, and then the Cubs' pitcher said:
"T'll cut your uniform off

you." Casey yelled back, "okay, here's one you can bunt." Passeau tried to bunt the ball so that Casey would have to come over and cover first but he failed. On the next pitch, Casey plunked Passcau in the side, as the Cub pitcher ducked away from the ball. Then the Cub pitcher flung his bat at Casey and he wasn't kidding either. The bat went zipping past the pitcher's box.
