Packer Grid Star Fine for Speeding

MILWAUKEE- (U.P) -Frank Balasz, a fullback with the world's champion Green Bay Packer football team, was fined $5 for speeding by District Judge Harvey L. Neelen Monday. The judge explained that he reduced the customary $10 fine one-half because the husky gridiron star was obliged by some misunderstanding to sit in the sultry bullpen awaiting his turn in court in stead of being released on bail.

Because the girl was slain at the army post, the investi-gation was turned over to the FBI. L. H. Richmond, chief of the St. Paul FBI office, reportedly seized one suspect for questioning, but he refused to comment.

The oil drum in which the body was found was hidden in a ravine about 700 feet from the Minnesota river in the southeastern corner of the reservation. - The body had been forced through a 14-inch cylindrical opening in the drum. Authorities had to cut the top from the drum to remove the body.
