Wooden Leg

EAST ST. LOUIS, III.—(U.R)—One thing this nation needs in these days of world shaking events is more cheerfulness, believes Paul Mrs. Savall's Campbell, president of the Fraternity of the Wooden Leg.

Campbell, who lost his right leg 25 years ago, also is editor of a little magazine, Courage, in which their limbs

The Fraternity of the Wooden the result of conversations with by the superintendent on charges

The idea of the fraternity, however, was just that until a friend of Campbell lost a foot in 1939. He wrote her a cheerful letter, welcoming her to the "Fraternity." She replied at once, proposing that the two of them organize such a group. After preliminary organization, the two sent out 12,000 circulars to persons using artificial limbs, inviting them to join the group. Out of the first mailing of circulars several hundred requests for membership came and the fraernity was launched.
