WPA Concert Today Stars Machtel, Bone

ALLAN H. BONE

DAVID MACHTEL

Allan H. Bone, Madison clarinetist, will be guest conductor and David Machtel, Madison tenor will be soloist at today's Vilas park concert by the Madison Work Projects Administration orchestra.

G. Lorenz White is the orchestra's conductor. The concert will begin at 2:45 p. m., and part of it will be broadcast by WIBA.

Both guests are graduates of West high school and the University of Wisconsin. Bone served as instrumental instructor in the Madison public schools last year and will attend Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y., next year. Machtel has sung in many concerts, on the air, and in Wisconsin players and Haresfont orchestra.

The program: Orchestra: "Marche Hongroise," Berlioz. Orchestra (Bone conducting): "Die Fledermaus" overture, Strauss.

Orchestra: "Yesterthoughts" and "Punchinello," Herbert. Machtel: "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," Tate; "When You're Away," Herbert.

Orchestra: Prelude to Act 3, "Kunihild," Kistler; "From Africa to Harlem," Bennett; "Hungarian Dance No. 1," Brahms; "Angels," and "Fete Boheme," Massenet. Machtel: "Gypsy Love Song," Herbert; "Song of Songs," Moya. Orchestra: "Emperor" waltz, Strauss.

Six Shows Scheduled for U. W.

An increased campus dramatic season is planned by the Wisconsin Players for 1940-41. Director J. Russell Lane of the Wisconsin Union theater announced Saturday.

Six instead of the usual five shows will be presented during the student theatrical season. As an opener, "Stage Door" by Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman will be given. Carl Cass will direct.

Second show will be "The Concert," a comedy by the Austrian dramatist Hermann Bahr, adapted by Leo Dirlichstein. Ronald E. Mitchell will direct.

"Knightsbridge," with music by the contemporary English composer, Eric Coates, will be given as the annual pro-Christmas holiday musical, with Lane directing. Lane also will direct the next show, "Family Portrait" by Lenore Coffee and William Joyce Cowen. This is a recent play, presented on Broadway last year, of the life of Jesus of Nazareth seen through the eyes of His family.

Walter Roach, state manager of the theater, will direct his first show in over a year in "George and Margaret," a comedy by Gerald Savory.

The season will close with John Galsworthy's famous and colorful old ballad opera, "The Beggar's Opera." Written in 1728 and first produced by John Rich, this musical satire is said to have made Rich gay and Gay rich, and set a stage fashion for generations.

A new novelty band will be featured nightly except Mondays over WIBA starting Tuesday night as Frank and Johnny's orchestra upon an engagement at Charles Schatz's Club Chanticleer. The band comes to Madison after several successful seasons in the South.

FCC Head NBC Manager on Air Monday

Two men high in radio circles will speak on the air Monday. Chairman James L. Fly of the Federal Communications commission will address the National Association of Broadcasters in San Francisco, and his speech will be carried by WBBM at 3:30 p. m.

Frank E. Mullen, new general manager of the National Broadcasting co., will speak during the National Farm and Home hour on WIBA-WMAQ at 10:30 a. m.
