Irene O'Neill Married to Eldred F. Hardtke

St. John's church at Prairie du Chien was the scene today at 9 a. m. of the wedding of Miss Irene O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neill, Patch Grove, and Eldred Frederick Hardtke of Madison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hardtke of Milwaukee and Two Rivers.

The bride wore a princess gown of white chiffon and Chantilly lace. Her tulle veil was fingertip length and she carried a shower bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and syringilla.

Miss Rosemary O'Neill, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore a pink embroidered or-gandy frock trimmed with du-bonnet. She carried pink roses.

Two sisters of the bride, Mrs. William Schmitz of Madison and Mrs. Henry C. Calvi, Glenace, Ill., formerly of Madison, were the bridesmaids. The former wore a blue lace gown with a turban to match, while Mrs. Calvi wore a yellow mouseline de soie dress and a matching net turban. They carried arm bouquets of roses and delphinium to harmonize with their gowns.

Margaret Anne Calvi, the junior bridesmaid, wore a long blue marquisette dress and carried a colonial bouquet.

James O'Neill, brother of the bride, was Mr. Hardtke's best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, who attended Edge-wood Junior college, was graduated at the University of Wisconsin. For the past year she has been teaching English and speech at the Patch Grove high school.

Mr. Hardtke, who received both his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Wisconsin, is a research assistant in the university psychology department. He will receive his Ph.D. degree next June.
