

Today's Radio Highlights

10:45 a. m., WOL—Johnny. Get Your Gun: To the music of the United States Army Band at the World's Fair in New York, the Mutual network airs statistics and information about recruiting.

7:30 p. m., WJSV—Those who say they know declare that while males are superior when mere muscle and speed are involved, when brains count in sports, it's the women athletes who have the edge. This theory is tested to a shadowy extent on Choose Up Sides, when Tennis Star Alice Marble comes up against Eddie Collins, now general manager of the Boston Red Sox after an active career!

8:30, WOL—When he was a lad he served a turn as an admirer of the late great saxophonist, Rudy Weidoff. In fact, when he took to a professional career after his collegiate success at Yale, Hubert Pryor Valleé changed his first name to Rudy. Tonight on Command Performance he plays a dramatization based on material furnished by Weidoff's widow.

9, WJSV—Out-spoken, Gen. Hugh Johnson speaks in favor of military conscription. It was the general, by the way, who drafted the conscription bill in the World War and supervised its execution.

9:30, WRC—Gerard Darrow, 8; Cynthia Cline, 14, and Van Dyke Tiers, 13, are still on Quiz Kids, all other comers against them having failed in the first meeting. Tonight's new-attempters-of-the-seeming-impossible are Jack Beckman, 13, who has an "A" average for eight years of Chicago schooling, and Davida M. Wolffson, also 13.

10:15, WOL—Blonde Norwegian Skater Sonja Henie registers with Uncle Sam as an alien. The new Mrs. Dan Topping has taken out her first citizenship papers but is subject to the alien registration law. She illustrates over the air how the procedure works. Earl Harrison, national director of Alien Registration, speaks.
