

Today's Radio Highlights

1:45 P. M., WMAL—"America's New Role in the Fashion Picture," as seen by Edna Woollman Chase, Mrs. Harrison Williams, Omar Kiam and Dorothy Shaver, points out that with the fall of France America has become the fashion capital of the world.

3:30, WOL—Bryan Field calls the running of Saratoga's Whitney Stakes.

7, WOL—Time Change: Fulton Lewis, jr. and Wythe Williams are involved in this latest habit-breaker. No sooner does The Post print Mr. Williams' picture and the hours of his broadcasts than, zoom, they're changed. Williams will be heard at 7 each Tuesday and Thursday, while Lewis will be on WOL Mondays through Fridays from 7:15 'til 7:30, 15 minutes later than he has been heard.

7:30, WMAL—James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President, follows younger brother Elliot as a contestant on Information Please. Will he have the opportunity to give his forthcoming picture, "Pastor Hall," a plug? Christopher Morley, whose "Kitty Foyle" is to be a film, might do the same thing.

8, WRC, WJSV and WOL—Senator Charles L. McNary, of Oregon, accepts the Republican Vice Presidential nomination at the Salem, Oreg., fairgrounds. Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota and Chairman Joseph E. Martin of the Republican National Committee are the other speakers.

8, WMAL—Dennis Day, that youthful tenor who clipped to radio celebrity in something of a record as soloist on the Jack Benny program, costars with Mildred Bailey on the Musical Americana hour with Raymond Paige's orchestra. Day sings Franz Lehar's "Yours Is My Heart Alone" and Weatherly's "Danny Boy."
