The address in which Sen.

Charles L. McNary, Oregon, accepts the Republican vice-presi-dential will be broadcast from

Salem, Ore., tonight over WIBA,

WMAQ, and WBBM at 7. Like his running mate, Wendell Willkie, the senate minority leader has chosen to receive the notification

from Joseph F. Martin, GOP national chairman. The ceremonies will take place at the State fair.

Drama

McNary Acceptance Talk to Be Aired on WIBA Tonight at 7

Many dialers are amazed at the versatility displayed by Don Ameche in his characterization on his Friday night NBC-Red program — as a timid bridegroom, as a gangster, as a dreamy farmer, in different dramas on the show. Perhaps they've forgotten that a few years back Don was playing "Chief Wolf-Paw," a sinister Indian chief, in a 15-minute spine-chiller broadcast from Chicago.

THE WISCONSIN STATE JOURNAL Young Actors | Starts Alien Registration Plan Co-op

Theater By JACK GAVER

(United Press Drama Editor) NEW YORK-(U.P)-There is a never-ending variety of schemes for getting plays before the public and this fact in itself should be sufficient answer to those of pes-simistic turn who profess to see the death of the theater emerging from the shadow of each Broadway flop, Backers of some of these schemes have plenty of money, others have little; some of them succeed and some fail: but the important thing is that there is always someone in there trying.

Nove comes a group of earnest young people headed by Robert Breen, who has a plan for a cooperative theater which would set up business this fall at the Irving Place, a former burlesque house which is far south of the beaten Broadway path. Actors' Equity, which is particular about such things, has granted permission for the cooperative effort because the plan would insure that the average actor participating will ap-proximate the $40 weekly mini-mum Equily wage.

The group is busily engaged in working out details so business can get under way by October. Besides those actors permanently identified with the group, there will be guest stars brought down-11:55—KMOX WBBM 11:55—KMOX WBBM 11:57—WENR WMAQ 12:25—WLW 12:30—WBBM town from the Broadway precincts when they are available. They will work for less than their uptown salaries, of course, but they still would make more than the minimum and besides there are many prominent players who like to take a flyer in experimental work such as the Breen group is apt to

At present Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" is counted on for the opening production, with Mady Christians the guest star. Other items on the fire include Jacob Ben-Ami in Dostolevski's "The Idiot," a "Macers come back the conditions of beth" with Flora Robson, and the schools will be very inviting Sherwood Anderson's "Winesburg, and wholesome," Johnson said Ohlo," which has never had a Broadway hearing.

Length of the runs will depend on the response, of course, but the chances are the venture will take on some aspects of a repertory theater once it gets started. The foundation of a permanent com-pany is a step in this direction, at

The stagehands, of course, will not work on a cooperative basis, but they are expected to make some concessions to the group since the theater is not in the Broadway district.

Strawberry Trees?

"The 'missing link' of the horticultural world now is in the act of being discovered," says Major Harry Bateson to reporters at his Long Beach, Cal., home. The major shows this plant-life missing link which he claims fills the gap between the rose and the strawberry. This plant, says the major will enable horticulturists to possibly grow strawberries on trees.

FDR Scolded Dies for Exposes, Peterson Says

LA CROSSE-Although Martin Dies exposed many enemies of our form of government in high public office, he was ridiculed and browbeaten by the president of the United States, R. W. Peterson, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator. told a campaign audience here Monday night.

"Dies revealed to the people of America that there are in this nation many groups working for the overthrow of the government," Peterson continued. He showed that these disciples of hate disguise themselves under innocent sounding titles, but in the solitude of secluded camps, dressed in the military uniform of a foreign nation and in the shadows of an unfurled foreign flag, they goose-step to martial music, propound their alien doctrines, and foreign salute."
