The new system, approved by the Federal Surplus Commodities corp., will be in operation within the next 60 days for a trial period.

Under the plan, those eligible, if they so choose, may convert their relief or WPA checks into the same amount of orange food stamps. These stamps will be redeemed by the merchants, at a clearing house, or through the banks.

Millers Tip Blues And Keep Title Race Undecided

(By United Press) The American Association pennant race continued today, Kansas City still a game away from cinching the championship and Columbus still hanging on by the skin of its teeth.

A pair of thrilling games kept the race open with but three games left to play. The Kansas City Blues lost their crucial tilt with the Minneapolis Millers when Miler First Baseman Phil Weintraub broke up the ball game with a ninth-inning home run. The score was 4-3, Murry Dickson won the game with Louisville for the Columbus Red Birds by pitching only three hits to the Colonels and setting them down with a shutout, 6-0. The St. Paul Saints and the Milwaukee Brewers split a doubleheader Friday night. Bob Reis won the first game for the Saints. 5-5, in the 11th inning with a home run. Buck Marrow won the second for the Brewers by shutting out the Saints with three hits,
