Double Feature Night Set For Kay Kyser's Program

"Foreign Correspondent" Thriller Is Due For First Airing; Zany Stars Plan Special Offering

It will be double feature night at Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge Wednesday at 9 p. m. over WEAF. "Who's Yehoodi?" featuring Sully Mason, Harry Babbitt and Kay, and "Playmates," sung by Ginny Simms, Ish Kabible and Babbitt, top the evening bill.

Ginny and Harry will offer a duet version of "The Breeze and 1," following which Ginny will do "All This and Heaven Too" and "Maybe" as solos. Harry follows with solos of "When the Swallows Come Back to Capistrano" and "I'm Nobody's Baby." "By the Waters of the Minnetonka," "Fine and Dandy" and "Love for Sale" will star the Kyser orchestra.

"Foreign Correspondent," the first airing with an all-star radio and Costello broadcast from Holcast on "Manhattan at Midnight" lywood. over WJZ Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Because of two ties involving four of last week's "Quiz Kids" contestants, there will be only one newcomer and four repeaters in the lineup facing Joe Kelly, master of ceremonies, when the program goes on the air over WJZ Wednesday at 7 p. m.

The struggles of a young couple who marry and face the world together in spite of terrific odds forms the theme of "We Who Are Young," featuring Lana Turner and John Shellon, is now at the Sigma theatre. Simple and straightforward in its treatment, this Dalton Trumbo original is one of the most powerful films to come out of Hollywood in some time. Its contention that big business would run more smoothly if its machinery were oiled with a bit of human kindness is proved without the shadow of a doubt.

The story, in brief, takes two young people who marry and attennt to set up housekeeping in the midst of a great city. The various flows dealt them by fate are blows being countered by hundreds of other youngsters the country over. How they manage to emerge victorious over seemingly unsurmountable odds makes for a solid hour of intense drama. Turning in the surprise performance of the piece is red-headed
