Kate Smith Returns To Air With Willie Howard In Cast

Comedian Will Be Heard With Old Regulars At 7 P. M. Friday; Pretzel Machine Inventor With Ripley

The Kate Smith Hour, after a summer vacation, will return to WABC Friday with an all-star variety program, featuring the "Songbird of the South"; Willie Howard, comedian; the Ted Straeter Chorus, Jack Miller's Band, Ted Collins. Andre Baurche and a radio version of the motion picture "Brigham Young," with Tyrone Power, Mary Astor and Dean Jagger. The program will be heard Friday at 7 p. m.

The heart-warming drams of a lieve It Or Not" broadcast on Friday at 9 p. m., over WABC. Going from the sublime to the humor-ous, Bob also will present the man who invented the pretzel bending machine, something that had previously defied all human ingenuity.

Mother and son who will meet fall and winter season. on his show are Mrs. Helen E. Sticken of Gardena, Calif., and Christ H. Laemnile of Bismark, N. D. In 1910, when Christ was six cast, Friday at 9 p. m., over months old, Mrs. Sticken was WEAF. forced to give him over for adoption to a family named Lacmmle. They lost track of each other until last Christmas when a Christmas card from Mrs. Sticken caught up with her son. Neither could afford to travel to the other, however, until Ripley offered them transportation to New York to meet on his program. Frances Miller, singing secretary from Atlanta's WGST, will be the talented newcomer to be introduced by Al Pearce on his WABC program from 6:30 to 7 p.m. The Merry Macs, ace vocal four-
