WHEN YOUR side's bidding North berated South for the same out. has gone wrong on a freak deal-one of those montrosities full of extremely long suits—it is unwise for either partner to upbraid the other. No bidding system yet devised is of much value in reaching the right contract on such bizarre distributions. Intelligent guesswork is about all that can be asked on some of them. And occasionally the best spot could not possibly be attained except by moves which are far out of line with the apparent logic of the sit-

Blanchardville's Late Score Nips Waterloo, 12-6

BLANCHARDVILLE -- Executing a touchdown play in the final 45 seconds of play, Blanchardville high school's football team turned an apparent 6-all tie into a 12-6 play. Ken Kuhn caught a pass victory over Waterloo of the for Portage's touchdown in the Madison Suburban League here Plenty of action was jammed into the game's scoring. Waterloo scored in the first 90 seconds when Ed Trotts, 125pound halfback, tossed a short pass to Laverne Wilke who raced 30 more yards to a touchdown. Blanchardville tied the score in the second quarter, Fullback Werner Stadelman going over from the one-foot line after a concerted march.

Less than a minute of play remained when Blanchardville lost the ball on downs within sight of pay-dirt; Waterloo punted back immediately and Kingdon Soper made a fine return. Herb Dobson then took the ball on a lateral pass play and stepped over for the winning touchdown.
