Francis Curran, Ross er at all positions except the ends and left halfback," says Dr. Eddie ter men. Francis Curran, Ross Anderson of the University of Anderson, and Bob Penaluna are Iowa in a frank summary of his sophomores who might break in at intervals. 1940 Hawkeye team.

He's no downcast coach, this Center concern is entirely abman Anderson who made his 1939 sent, with Bruno Andruska, seniron man outfit one of the national ior, and Bill Diehl and George football sensations and won for Frye, juniors. Andruska played himself the coach of the year three successive full time games award. last fall after Diehl was injured.

Iowa plays this fall without All-With no ends of experience, Dr. American Nile Kinnick, the No. 1 Anderson has sent an ironman guard, Ken Pettit, to left end in back of last year. And Iowa will greatly miss his passing, kicking, and general coach-on-the field inspirational type of play. Just how much the loss of mores are Bill Parker, Steve Mi-zen, and Wiford Burkett.

Kinnick and the absence of Erwin Prasse and Dick Evans, the durable ends, will mean to the Hawks cannot be known until the big games. But of the 13 iron men of 1939, those who played from one to six 60-minute games, eight have returned and at present six of these are on the first team. They are giving the sophomores and other squad members a touch of that fire and determination which made the '39 team a national startler.

From tackle to tackle. Iowa's line will apologize to no one. Captain Mike Enich already is established as one of the best in the land, and Jim Walker, big Negro who missed five games because of injury, is in the left tackle slot. Bob Otto, junior, and Al Urban, Joe Byrd, and George Gable, sophomores, are next

Prep Football Season Gains Momentum

> High school football resumes its place on the sports calender in earnest this week with no less than 35 games scheduled to be played. In addition eight sixman tilts are carded.

Seven conferences will open their schedules. The Big Eight, Southwest Wisconsin, South Cen-tral, Tri-County, Little Ten, Southern State, and Northern Tri-County circuits will play their bis senior year and has been dame Jack Maher, junior, at the other conference contests last week post.
