Ben Bernie Heads Music Quiz And Features Carol Bruce, Soloist; Clare Booth Guest On Information Please.

Wistful Vista will witness the return of its leading citizens, Fibber McGee and Molly, on Tuesday, when Jim and Marian Jordan, who have just completed a 10,000 mile tour of the United States, begin their sixth season on the air over WEAF at 9:30 p. m.

The McGees will find some newcomers in town with whom they will become acquainted early in the fall. The familiar old characters will still be around, including "Mr. Gildersleeve," played by Hal Peary; "Mrs. Uppington," played by Isabel Randolph, and "The Old Timer," "Mr. Boomer," and "Nick DePopulus," all played by young Bill Thompson.

Ben Bernie will return to the air Oct. 1, with two new features—Carol Bruce, beauty find of the Broadway year, and a novel Music Quiz. The Ol' Maestro and all the Lads, with Carol Bruce as soloist, will broadcast their program over WJZ Tuesdays from 8 to 8:30 p. m.

Clare Boothe, author and playwright, will join John Kieran, P. Adams and Oscar Levant on the "Information Please" board of experts on WJZ Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m.

Miss Boothe wrote the hit plays, "The Women," "Kiss the Boys Goodbye," and "Margin for Error."

Jessica Dragonette, famous radio and concert soprano, and Buddy Clark, making a return engagement, will be the guest stars with Raymond Paige and his orchestra on Musical Americana, Tuesday, at 9 p. m. over WJZ.

Miss Dragonette's solos will be "The Road to Paradise" from Romberg's "Maytime," and Stephen Porter's "Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair."

Gabriel Heatter asks all listeners to write in and name their favorite guests so "We, The People" can celebrate its fourth anniversary on the air with an all-request program over WABC Tuesday at 8 p. m.

Robert Owens, heir to the fortune of one of America's pioneer families, the Owens, who settled in Delanson, New York, will be sought to claim an estate valued at more than $100,000 on the Court of Missing Heirs program Tuesday, 8 p. m. over WABC.

The same program will also try to locate James F. Sarsfield, who left Reddick, Ill., on his annual vacation Aug. 17, 1939. He boarded the Pacemaker, landed in New York and hasn't been heard from since.

Edgar Yinger, 24, of Zanesville, was killed by a truck he tried to board at Newark.

Merlin Stewart, 87, of Mt. Sterling, engineer, died in a Columbus hospital of a fractured skull suffered when an automobile struck him Sunday.

Three-year-old Donald, son of Mrs. Joseph Kover, was crushed to death beneath an upset washing machine in Warren.

David L. Stanze, about 60, died at the wheel of his automobile on a Xenia street. A former city commissioner at Dayton, he was employed as a traveling auditor for the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

A pedestrian killed by an automobile northwest of Chillicothe Sunday night was identified as Joseph J. Marvin, 69, of New Bedford, Mass., who was driving a 1935 Ford sedan.

Injuries received in an automobile accident in which her husband, Walter, was killed were fatal last night to Mrs. Clarice Graham of Tiltonville.

The YMCA Checker club has host to Newell Banks of Detroit Monday night. A large and enthusiastic group of players and spectators attended the exhibition held in the "Y" lobby.

Players from Celina, St. Marys, Van Wert, Delphos, Lima and surrounding towns participated. Banks played 20 boards simultaneously and lost no games. Draws were secured by Ray Hansacker of St. Marys and C. W. Campbell of Celina. In the blind-fold contest, Charles Boss of Celina was the only player to obtain a draw from Banks.

This is the first of the season's activities of the Lima Checker club. Other well-known checker players will appear during the extensive program planned by the club.

Famous Classic Of Boyhood Half Of Sigma Double Bill

"Tom Brown's School Days" Booked Wednesday With "Pop Always Pays;" Lyric Film Stars Alice Faye

Action, suspense, an absorbing story of boyhood and a gripping real-life account of a resolute man's influence upon the school systems of the world are combined in "Tom Brown's School Days," commencing Wednesday at the Sigma theatre with a joyous comedy, "Pop Always Pays."

Showing for the last times Tuesday are "The Mummy's Hand," and "Stranger on the Third Floor."

Starring Alice Faye in the title role, the Lyric feature, "Lillian Russell," offers the life and loves of America's first and greatest glamor girls. Rivals for her affections are portrayed by Edward Arnold, Don Ameche, Henry Fonda and Warren William. The co-feature is "Flamed."

Recognition of the intrepid group of American newspapermen who are serving as the nation's eyes and ears during the European debacle, as the unsung heroes who risk their lives daily in order to keep their own people informed of the rapidly shifting panorama of war, is given in "Foreign Correspondent," starring Joel McCrea and now showing at the Ohio theatre.

"Military Academy," sensational new drama at the Quilna theatre is an engrossing study of American youth studying and preparing for manhood, and stars Tommy Kelly, Bobby Jordan and Jackie Scall. The co-feature, "Blondie Has Servant Trouble," stars Arthur Lake, Penny Singleton and Larry Simms in another hilarious episode of the Bumstead family.

The most mysterious figure in police records and women's diaries returns to the screen of the State in "The Saint Takes Over," starring George Sanders and Wendy Barrie. The co-feature, "The Mortal Storm," stars Margaret Sullivan, James Stewart, Robert Young and Frank Morgan in a story of hate-breeding delinquency.

A mild mannered man whose lot seems to be cast mostly as a menace is George Sanders, handsome young British six-footer. The die was cast so far as Hollywood was concerned when he enacted a villainous role in his first picture, "Loyals of London," and he's been a heavy or semi-heavy ever since.

Sanders is currently bowing down and thanking Alfred Hitchcock, distinguished director and fellow Britisher, who gave him his first chance to be a semi-romantic figure in "Foreign Correspondent," now at the Ohio theatre. In this picture, Sanders is a London newspaper man, who joins Joel McCrea, as an American correspondent, in running down a band of international war plotters.

The English actor was born in St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1906, where his father was a rope manufacturer. When the revolution came along, Britishers were not popular in Russia, especially those of the capitalist class and the Sanders family narrowly escaped being hanged with their own rope.

While he is a big man, six feet three inches tall and weighs 215, he keeps himself in perfect trim, with tennis, golf and swimming. His favorite vacation is to set out on his bicycle and just roam where fancy dictates.

He is unmarried and lives alone, all of his family being in England. His father and brother are yacht builders, while his sister is a well known interior decorator. Previous to "Foreign Correspondent," he scored heavily as Pavell in the recently released "Rebecca" which Hitchcock also directed.

Alice Faye, Lillian Russell becomes one of the most colorful figures ever to face the cameras. Don Ameche as Edward Solomon, her composer husband, and Henry Fonda, as Alexander Moore, the Pittsburgh publisher, both turn in grand acting jobs, as do Edward Arnold, as Diamond Jim Brady, Warren William and Leo Carrillo. Others who do outstanding work are Helen Westley, Dorothy Peterson, Ernest Truex, Nigel Bruce, Claude Allister, Lynn Bari, Weber and Fields, Eddie Foy, Jr., Una O'Connor and Joseph Cawthorn.

QUILNA
The Bumsteads are carrying on as ever—in the laughable and lovely friendly way which has endeared them in the hearts of millions of Americans!

This is the inevitable report your reviewer must bring back (along with aching sides) after seeing their latest mad maze of mirth, "Blondie Has Servant Trouble," at the Quilna theatre. The let-down you might expect is just not there. Dagwood (Arthur Lake), Blondie (Penny Singleton), Baby Dumpling (Larry Simms) and Daisy have come thru with another top-notch group of performances as the Chic Young comic strip characters come to life.

Like its predecessors, "Blondie Has Servant Trouble" deals with the very things everyone of us encounters during our daily lives. This time, Blondie wants a maid and tells Dagwood he'd better get a raise in order to pay for this added convenience. Then begins the typical Bumstead adventures of hilarious proportions. Every member of the family is dragged in, of course, as well as old friends like Alvin, the boy next door, and the poor postman who is always getting knocked down by the daily Dagwood rush to work.

You can't help but forget some of your cares as you find yourself immersed by the continual flow of merriment unrolled on the screen in delightful sequence.

RURAL ELECTRIC PIONEER HONORED BY FARM BUREAU

MINSTER, Oct. 1.—Special recognition has been accorded Paul Berger, farmer of near here, by the Ohio Farm Bureau, for having been the first man in the United States to prepare, circulate and submit a petition for the development of rural electrification. Recognition also was given to men who have belonged to the Farm Bureau 20 years or more. In this group were included Berger, Benjamin Lehmkuhl and Harry Lehmkuhl, and William Fiddling of near Minster.

LYRIC
Her name in lights! In the headlines! On thousands of lips! Men offered fortunes just to be seen in her company! And even kings acclaimed her!

That was Lillian Russell, first and greatest of the glamor girls, whose life and loves are depicted and the song hits of whose era, as well as some new ones, are sung in "Lillian Russell," now at the Lyric theatre with Alice Faye, Don Ameche and Henry Fonda in the top featured roles.

Zanuck has done it again, for "Lillian Russell" is certainly one of the greatest entertainments of all time. It is a thrilling portrait of the beautiful and vivid personality of America's most fabulous era.
