(United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK-(U.P.)-Four major castern teams were bumped off in upsets that featured anoth-er wave of form reversals during the season's first full weekend of college football.

Yale, Dartmouth, New York U., and Holy Cross were beaten by apparently inferior elevens while Army escaped by an eyelash. Less startling though far more significant was Duke's easy defeat by Tennessee and Southern California's second straight deadlock.

Yale opened its season by los-ing to Virginia, 19-14. It was the first time in 24 years that the Cavaliers had beaten the Elis.

Dartmouth bowed to Franklin and Marshall, 23-21. Little Lafayette downed а highly regarded New York U.

Edgerton at Stoughton, and Ft. the superiority displayed by Tennessee over Duke's Blue Devils, who had been touted as the greatest team Wallace Wade has coached in a decade.

Southern California, victor over Tennessee in the last Rose Bowl game and a favorite for the Pacific Coast title, was held to its second straight deadlock when its game with Oregon State wound up in a scoreless tie. The week before, Washington State had held the Trojans to a 14-14 stand-

Another form reversal was Santa Clara's 9-6 win over U. C. L. A., despite the Uclans previous defeat by powerful Southern Methodist. In similar fashion, Auburn's 20-14 triumph over Tulane was unexpected in many quarters, despite Tulane's previous trouncing by formidable Boston College. In view of these results,
