Opening of Chicago Symphony 50th Year on WGN at 9:30

Musical highlights of an event-studded Golden Jubilee season for the Chicago Symphony orchestra will be broadcast starting tonight at 9:30 over WGN and continuing weekly until April 17. Dr. Frederick Stock will conduct the first concert, highlighting his new composition, which "includes everything but the cash register." Other numbers on the program include Symphony No. 3 by Beethoven, "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks" by Strauss, and "Capriccio Espagnol" by Rimsky-Korsakov.

Other outstanding broadcasts for tonight and Fridaytime follow, classified:

Religious
10:30 p. m.—Yom Kippur (WIBA): Rabb. Edward L. Israel on the significance of the Jewish holiday. Cantor David Putterman and the choir of Park Avenue Synagogue of New York chanting the traditional "Kol Nidre."

Discussion
9 p. m.—National Defense (WENR): H. W. Prentiss, Jr., president of the National Association of Manufacturers, on "Industry's Call to the Colors."
