Giants Are 17-7 Victors Over Eagles

NEW YORK -(U.P.)- The New York Giants put together two touchdown marches of 74 and 56 yards and added a field goal for extra measure to score their second victory of the National Pro-fessional league football season Sunday at the expense of the hapless Philadelphia Eagles, 17-7. A throng of 30,317 saw the Eagles hold the Giants scoreless throughout a bitter first half and then come apart at the guard and tackle positions in the last two periods. The Giants pushed over their first touchdown and clicked with the field goal in the third quarter then scored again in the fourth.

Their chances all but ruined by butter-fingered pass receivers, the Eagles were unable to penetrate beyond the enemy 30-yard line until the last three minutes. Then Foster Watkins faded back to the mid-field stripe, heaved a long aerial to Jay Arnold who carried to the six-inch line. One play later Frank Emmons plunged for the
