

Kate Smith Presents Radio Version Of Movie Sea Yarn

O'Neill's "The Long Voyage Home" Offered At 8 P. M. Friday Over WABC With Brian Aherne And Henry Hull In Leading Roles

Eugene O'Neill's "The Long Voyage Home," hailed by critics as one of the finest motion pictures of all time, will be presented in radio adaptation on the Kate Smith Hour over WABC Friday at 8 p. m.

Because the stars of the movie, Ian Hunter and Thomas Mitchell, are busy making other pictures, their roles will be portrayed on the air by Brian Aherne and Henry Hull, respectively. Hunter will be heard as "Smitty" and Hull as "Driscoll."

Mary Jane Walsh, blues singing star of "Too Many Girls" and other Broadway musicals, will be a guest on Alec Templeton Time Friday, at 7:30 p. m. over WEAF. Alec as usual will be assisted by Pat O'Malley, Larry Stewart and Ray Noble's orchestra.

A public audition is the latest thing in radio and will be tried out Friday, when "Murder Will Out," a new mystery series in which a panel of celebrities attempt to solve whodunit, is put on the "Command Performance" program, via WOR to gauge listener reaction. Participating will be Margaret Burke-White, Erskine Caldwell, Homer Croly and Arthur Garfield Hayes.

The "Harry Chapman Case" will be the true story presented over WJZ Friday, at 9:00 p. m., when "Gang Busters" produces excerpts from Chapman's actual case history. Chapman, given two opportunities to "go straight," failed each time and left a trail of kidnaping and murder behind him. Finally brought down by police bullets, he was tried and sentenced to the electric chair.

Fred Waring and his staff have written another college fight song, "This one, The Gamecocks of South Carolina U.," will be dedicated to that institution on the College Smoker program Friday at 7:00 p. m., over WEAF.

The composition, by Fred and Tom Waring and Pat Ballard, is the result of a petition signed by 1,850 South Carolina students, "Danny Boy" by Weatherley.

. . . says Mrs. James Perkins of Cleveland

"My grandmother used it . . . and my mother used it . . . and now I use it. I've always known about Pillsbury's Best Flour and the good things it makes. I bake bread, rolls, biscuits, cakes, and pies, and everything is so tasty. My bread and rolls are light and fine-grained. . . . cakes are tender, and pie crust flaky. I like Pillsbury's Best Flour for all uses. No other flour compares with it."

GUARANTEED For EVERYTHING You Bake . . . Every TIME You Bake

Pillsbury's Best Flour is made from a "balanced" blend of wheats and has our money-back guarantee to give you complete satisfaction in everything you bake. . . . every time you use it.

Pillsbury's BEST XXXX Flour

Balanced for Bread-Cake-Biscuits

Why is it more fun to bake with Pillsbury's Best?

Have you ever baked with a flour that never seemed to work just right, no matter what you did? We have, when we've been testing wheat. But we never buy that kind of wheat for Pillsbury's Best Flour. We spend thousands of dollars extra every year to get the wheats to go into Pillsbury's Best—to get the kinds of wheats that are natural "good bakers." Then we blend those wheats, to make a perfect all-purpose flour—and test the flour every hour during the milling process to make sure it's always the same—always dependable. People tell us Pillsbury's Best is very "easy to handle." We think you'll have more fun baking with Pillsbury's Best Flour!

Women's fine silk hose, silverware, watches, coffee makers, cast aluminum ware, and a host of other fine items of merchandise are yours in exchange for Pillsbury's THIRTY STARS.
