News Broadcasts MILWAUKEE- (U.P.) -Green Bay Packers rested today after a week of strenuous work-outs in preparation for Sundays important National Professional Football League game with the Pittsburgh Steelers at State Fair park here.

With two defeats already charged against them, the champion Packers realized they must whip the Steelers to stay in the running for the league title. Coach E. L. Lambeau worked his players at top speed all week following their rout by the Detroit Lions last Sunday.

Coach Walter Kiesling's team is reported the best ever to repre-sent Pittsburgh in the National League. They whipped the Chicago Bears in an exhibition game and later beat the Detroit Lions Both teams humbled the Packers this season. Kiesling, himself a former

Packer, has two 'ex-Green Bay players in his lineup. They are Hank Bruder, blocking back, and Fullback Swede Johnson. The game will be the Packers' last appearance in Wisconsin this
