Drama And Comedy Promised In State's New Double Bill

'When The Daltons Rode" And "Turnabout' Due Thursday; "Boys From Syracuse" And "River's End" Close Wednesday

A thundering adventurous host of action-loving brothers ride the plains in the State theatre film, "When the Daltons Rode," commencing with an all-star cast. "Turnabout," the comedy of a man who wished he were a woman and vice versa, and what happened when the wish came true, will be offered with the adventure film. Showing for the Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rader and final times Wednesday are

"The Boys From Syracuse" and "River's End."

A east of well known entertainers of radio, stage and screen are featured in the Quilna film, "Hit Parade of 1941," with Kenny Baker and Frances Langford, radio singers, starred. Others include Ann Miller, ballet dancer and tap dancer, Porrah Minevitch and his Harmonica Rascals, and Hugh Herbert, Mary Boland and Patsy Kelly of the screen.

Nick Carter, as personified by Walter Pidgeon, plunges anew into adventure, this time with abundant comedy amid the thrills in "Sky Murder," third of the series now showing at Sigma theatre. The laughs and heart interest in Patsy, while still a schoolgirl developed an interest in tap daneing, and took dancing lessons from the inimitable Jack Blue. The pupil became so adept that she was soon made teacher in the school, and for three years she taught aspiring young dancers to trip the light fantastic.

Frank Fay then offered Patsy's brother a job in one of his shows, with the proviso that his dancing must measure up to rigid requirements. Patsy hung around the theatre hour after hour coaching him-with the result that Patsy, instead of her brother, went into the show!

Moviegoers who are looking for light, sparkling entertainment and who isn't these days?-need look no further than "I Want a Divorce," the comedy drama starring Joan Blondell and Dick Powell which opens Thursday on the screen of the Ohio theatre.

With Gloria Dickson, Frank Fay, Jessie, Ralph and Conrad Nagel among those in support of Miss Blondell and Dick Powell, the picture artfully combines just the correct proportions of comedy and drama in its story telling. Joan and Dick, who are a happily married couple in real life, are seen as a pair of young people who are thrown together strangely enough, by the divorce of Joan's sister, a role played by Gloria Dicksons The good-natured narrative lopes along at a smart pace, and it is the natural order of things for Joan and Dick to get married Connubial bliss is just that as far
