Franklin's Diplomacy To Be Dramatized On Broadcast

Cavalcade Players To Show How Envoy's Tact Resulted In Alliance Between France, United States

The story of Benjamin Franklin's diplomacy at the Court of Louis XVI which resulted in an alliance between the United States and France will be told in the Cavalcade of America. "Dr Franklin Goes to Court," an original radio drama written especially for Cavalcade, will star John Mc-Intire of the Cavalcade Players as the venerable Dr. tus" in the title for the unusual

Ben Franklin. The program offering "Mr. District Attorney" will present Wednesday at 9:30 will be broadcast Wednesday p. m., over WEAF. over WEAF at 7:30 p. m.

Thirty-one year old Douglas Leigh, designer of Broadway's newest, biggest, most spectacular animated cartoon sign-will be the person you don't expect to meet on the Star theatre program Wednesday at 9:00 p. m. over WABC, when Fred Allen interviews him. Leigh's sign will exhibit a full five-minute show of "minute movies," to be changed

"The Hunted," based upon a story by Steve Fisher, noted magazine writer, will be the title of Edward G. Robinson's next "Big Town" broadcast over WABC on Wednesday. It's a tensely dramatic story of a woman who falls in love with the parole officer who hounds her as a criminal.

Harry "Call - Me - Caruso" von Zell will larynx in on the vocal assignments of Eddie Cantor, Dinah Shore and the glee club surprising even Mr. Guffy — on "Time to Smile" over WEAF Wednesday at 9:00 p. m.

The banjo-eyed comic fully exoccts that Harry won't be easy to handle after his vocal triumph on last week's program, when the usually tractable announcer distinguished himself with a tonsorial tenor rendition of Cantor's "The Case of the Gold Augus-

Her smiling "How do you do" in response to introductions strikes the right note at once. Unacceptable to people of background are such expressions as "Pleased to meet you," "A pleasuie, I'm sure.'

And, tho a woman ordinarily does not offer her hand at introductions, to do so on special ccasions is cordial and correct. Knowing etiquette is so important to the woman who wishes a popular place in her community. How awkward, for example, if you don't know the right way to reply to an invitation written on a calling card. Just send your own card with "Delighted to come Friday at 4" at the top.
