(Of the Radio Committee, Madison Branch, American Association of University Women)

Turn the radio on at random, especially in the daytime, and quite probably one will hear it chatter or rant. The chatter, which starts by boring one, finishes by putting him out of all humor with AAUW the thing. Yet there is too much preasure in the instrument to let it stand idle. Music—that is what the thing. Yet there is too much pleasure in the little many people want as they go about the house, not necessarily lofty music, but good music. Many tasks music does not interfere with; it is less obtrusive than talking; it stimulates thought. I at least, prefer to have music more often than other forms of 12:45-1:00 Ginsburgh WGN entertainment. CHRISTMAS COLOR CONTEST

Get your crayons or paint boxes ready. We're going to provide you with many hours of educational entertainment as well as valuable information—and which will put dollars in your pocket right when you need them.

Christmas is just around the corner. Santa Claus has already moved large holiday stocks into the trade marts of our city. And our merchants will have their Christmas gift suggestions arranged in dazzling display. This color contest will lift the curtain on the Christmas shopping season.

PRIZES SECOND 15 THIRD 10 4th to 8th each 5 9th to 33rd cach . . .

We will issue a special Christmas Section carrying the advertisements of our leading merchants. Your fun and competition will come in the coloring of these various advertisements. Every member of your family can participate by either doing the actual coloring or offering suggestions. Be sure to get this section.
