Preview Will Be Shown At Quilna Wednesday Evening

"Tin Pan Alley" Has Alice Faye, Betty Grable And John Payne In Featured Roles; Dual Bill Will Close

"Tin Pan Alley," which opens at the Quilna preview Wednesday evening, narrates the experiences of a song publisher who builds a "house of hits" when his talented sweetheart introduces his songs to the public. Alice Faye, Betty Grable and John Payne have featured roles, "Youth

Will Be Served" and "The! Gay Caballero" will show thru Wednesday afternoon.

Opening Wednesday at the Sigma is "Stage to Chino," George O'Brien thriller, which concerns the dangers and excitement of running the mail by stagecoach. Also on the new bilt will be "Dr. Christian Meets the Women," a swift paced blend of dramatic action, delightful romance, heart touching pathos and rollicking comedy. Jean Hersholt and Dorothy Lovett star. Tuesday will be the final day for the showing of "Btter Sweet," a lilting tale of a gay 90's belle who falls in love with her singing teacher, at the Ohio theatre. This color, features Jeanette MacDonald,

Nelson Eddy, Ian Hunter and "The Letter" with Bette Davis and Herbert Marshall opens

Thanksgiving Day. Many Hollywood favorites are in the current Lyric attractions. Shirley Temple, Jack Oakie and Charlotte Greenwood are "Young People," a film packed with fun, songs and dances. Completing the bill is "Girls of the Mack and Lola Lane. Continuing to thrill State natrons is "Boom Town," story of oil and the men who risk their lives to get it. Regarded as one of the best pictures of 1940, this hit features Clark Gable, Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr and Claudette

QUILNA

Those great song hits that inspired you yesterday. Catchy performances are said to be shocktunes that set your feet tapping ... your hands beating out rhythms. Melodies that will weave a world of fancy for you tomorrow. Ragtime . . . jazz . . jive . . . where does it all stem from? How are melodramatic strains conceived? By whom are they composed? The Quina takes you down the street that gives the world its greatest songs in "Tin Pan Alley," which stars Alice Faye and Betty Grable and commences at the Wednesday preview. Keyed to the mood of America, this musical of moved to her home here from the our exciting times depicts in hu-Gibbons hospital at Celina, where man, dramatic terms the color, remance, heartbreak and glamour which are part of the place where songs are born. With Jack Oakie and John Payne heading a brilliant featured cast, "Tin Pan Alley" cut from the same unusual musical and dramatic pattern as was ill from exhaustion. His murse "Alexander's Ragtime Band," produced by the same studio. It is built around a compelling love story between a rising music publisher and singer of songs. Woven into the story are some of the most stirring and haunting of old and new song hits. Some of America's greatest popular song The New Bromen P.-T. A. held writers of yesterday and today contribute their best and biggest successes to "Tin Pan Alley."

LYRIC

Bubbling-over with mirth and melody, and with Jack Oakie and Charlotte Greenwood sharing the fun, "Young People," at the Lyric theatre, has been heralded as the most enjoyable of all Shirley Temple's twenty-two pictures.

"Young People" is Shirley's first musical picture in two years. There day evening, with Mrs. Dwight the parents of an eight-pound son, are five top-notch songs cleverly blended with the plot in "Young Sixty members of the local People." The unusual story deals Wednesday afternoon, to the W. American Legion and the Ameri- with troupers Jack, Charlotte and Shirley who decide to retire from covered dish dinner and a program, the stage in a small New England
