

The Post Radio Time Table

1 P. M. WRC—Sari Biro, young Hungarian pianist who at the age of 11 played at the opening of the Hungarian Broadcasting System, plays Rameau's Gavotte and Variations; "The Lake at Evening" by Charles T. Griffes and Schubert's Marche Militaire.

2, WMAL—"Food Dollars and Cents" is emphasized as a Thanksgiving program on the Raising a President series, with Marjorie Heseltine, consultant on nutrition for the Children's Bureau, talking from this city.

5, WJSV—"Yoo-hoo, Mrs. Blo-o-m" has now been shouted over the air for 11 years. It was on November 20, 1929 (yes, right after the c-a-h!) that Mrs. Gertrude Berg first was heard in her own serial, The Goldbergs.

8, WMAL—Arthur W. Haelig, 13, scholarship student of the University of Chicago High School, and Joan Bishop, 14, who has performed as piano soloist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, are the newcomers to the Quiz Kids lineup.

9, WMAL—Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, director of the Selective Service Board, speaks on "Selective Service."

9, WJSV—Jack Ramshaw is an eagle, but what-a-man! You may recall him as the ad-libber who broke up the Fred Allen broadcast of some time back with his back talk, and here he is again.

9, WRC—"My Mother Would Love You" is one of the songs Ethel Merman sings so wondrous well in "Panama Hattie." Eddie Cantor's going to try his style at it tonight.

10, WJSV—Glenn Miller picks up his trombone for "Is This Our Last Night Together?" a song by Mrs. Pauline Bouchard, of Cohoes, N. Y., which won her a national magazine song-poem contest.

10:15, WMAL—The Public Health Service has cooperated with the Office of Education for a series of five broadcasts titled "Help Yourself to Health."

10:15, WJSV—Much-talked-of U. S. Ambassador John Cudahy to Belgium and Minister to Luxembourg, discusses King Leopold's position in the war under the titled "Was King Leopold a Traitor?"
