Several Others Are Scheduled As Guests On "We, The People;" Missing Man Is Hunted

Martinique is very much in the headlines these days because of its nearness to our shores and the reports that the Vichy government is building fortification on the island. A first-hand story of what's going on there will be given "We, the People" listeners Tuesday night over WABC at 9 p. m., when Gabriel Heatter interviews Pat Frank, correspondent for the Overseas News Agency, who has been covering the French island. Others who have been scheduled to appear on the program are Buelah,

When Joic gets into another scrape and wants Laurie to go away with him again, she refuses, and he goes to Mexico alone. She and Nickie fall in love and at the engagement reception, Joie shows up again. He threatens to expose her past to Mama and Nickie.

But Mama hears of it, goes on a rampage and staps some sense into her son. Joie promises to square things. He holds off the mob out to get him until Nickie and Laurie are safely married, then starts a street riot, in which the hoodlums are captured. All ends happily as Joie pulls out with a mere 60 days for disturbing the
