Madeleine Carroll, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Wayne Morris And Rosemary Lane Head Casts Of Fine Films

Throbbing, tropical romance takes place deep in the jungles of the West Coast of South America in the State film, "Safari," starring Madeleine Carroll and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., with Tullio Carminati, Muricl Angelus and Lynne Overman in supporting roles. The co-feature is "Ladies Must Live," with Wayne Morris and Rosemary Lane in the lead roles.

The current Quilna attraction, "Tin Pan Alley," continues to thrill patrons with the story of the glittering street of song-writers and publishers in the heyday of popular hits. Alice Faye, Bet-Grable, Jack Oakie and John Payne are the stars of the film. Commencing at the Friday preview is the latest Gene Autry hit, "Melody Ranch" and "Who Killed Aunt Maggie?" A tenderly told love story of family life, "Father is a Prince" is currently at the Sigma theatre with Grant Mitchell, Nana Bryant, John Litel and Lee Patrick in the featured roles. Co-featured is a collection of Walt Disney hits including "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Ferdinand the Bull" and "Three Little Pigs."

Showing for the last times Thursday at the Lyric theatre is "The Howards of Virginia" starring Cary Grant and Martha Scott. Nancy Kelly and Jon Hall are the stars of the added attraction, "Sailor's Lady." Com-mencing Friday will be "Laughing at Danger" and "Son of Roaring
