The Post Radio Time Table

9:15 a. m., WRC---Mary Mason is honored on her fifth anniversary as director of WRC's Home Forum, contrary to reports in last Sun-day's Post, which had it earlier. Festivities take place on the Earle Theater stage, and "Cousin" Mary's friendly rivals, Elinor Lee of WJSV and Frances Troy Northcross of WOL, offer their congratula-tions in person

Theater stage. and "Cousin" Mary's friendly rivals. Elinor Lee of WJSV and Frances Troy Northcross of WOL. offer their congratula-tions in person. 9:15, WJSV—The Post's own Lady Solomon is doing a swell job on the air. The name? Mary Haworth. 1:30 p. m. WJSV—Armstrong High School makes its contribution to the Heroes of Democracy series: "The Life of Benjamin Banneker." 1:55. WMAL—The Metropolitan Opera air season opens in demo-cratic splendor. Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" is the choice, with Elisabeth Rethberg, John Brownlee, Ezio Pinza, Licia Albanese and Jarmila Novotna. Intermission doings are impressive: Herbert Hoo-ver, Edward Johnson, Lucrezia Bori, Mrs, August Belmont, Lawrence Tibbett, Gladys Swarthout and Olin Downs, not in the order named. 3:00. WJSV—This city hears last Tuesday's Invitation to Learning via transcription. Henry Adams' autobiography. "The Education of Henry Adams," is the subject. 5:35. WMAL—Notre Dame-Southern California football game. 7:00. WJSV—Financial aid to Great Britain is a question that has been much in public print this week. The People's Platform gathers four Chicagoans—two experts and two laymen—to give their views. 8:00. WOL—Senator William H. King of Utah joins the Baltic-American Society in tribute to Jan Sibelius on the composer's birth-day anniversary. 9:35 WMAL—Arturo Toscanini has recovered from his recent indis-position to lead an all-Sibelius program on the seventy-fifth birthday of the Finnish composer: Symphony No. 2 in D; "The Swan of Tuo-nela"; "Pohjola's Daughter." and "Finlandia."
