MILWAUKEE - (U.P.) - Tony Zule, world middleweight boxing champion, and Tony "Cinanciola" Martín, Milwaukee, will meet here New Year's day in a non-title con-

Long negotiations for the match were ended Tuesday when Sam Pian, Zale's manager, agreed to the bout after learning that the Wisconsin boxing commission would not object to the fighters' weighing in at "less than 162 pounds." This arrangement was designed to protect. Zale's title in the event of his defeat,

Under the plan, suggested by Fred Saddy, the official scale will be set at 162 pounds. If neither fighter tips the beam, their weights will be approved as "under 162." The commission agreed to waive its rule requiring no more than eight pounds difference between the fighters, since Zale and Martin are known to weigh period. within five pounds of each other in fighting trim. The "catch weight" arrangement was necessitated by the fact that if Martin officially weighed in at less than the middleweight limit he could claim the title if he
