ting little McCoy to last five Radio News and Programs full rounds in Boston's first heavyweight title fight Monday night, and (2) Promoter Mike Jacobs' announcement immediately after the bout that Conn would tackle Louis in June.

Many of the experts thought Louis had slipped considerably since his last previous bout with Arturo Godoy in June, although jolting Joe wound up with a sixth-round technical knockout victory when McCoy was unable to answer the bell for the sixth punches with the elusive Boston challenger. After the bout, McCoy jumped on the Conn bandwagon by declaring that Conn is a harder man to fight than Louis, Conn won a 10-round decision over McCoy on 3

ing. But he was unable to con-

more thorough battering than did Louis, although Conn is a notoriously weak puncher, Jim Braddock, former heavyweight king who was at the ringside Monday night, said, "if Conn had been in there with Louis tonight, we would have had a new champion. Billy would have beaten Joe." Conn, who also was a ringside observer, agreed
