It was in Madison Square Garden and Alice Marble, queen of all the tennis courts from Berkeley to Wimbledon, was making her debut Monday night as a professional. Her opponent was Mary Hardwick of Great Britain, who listened to the anthem of her empire, watched a Union Jack go up to the rafters and then almost brought about the first sports upset of the new

In the end Alice's power and cunning overcame Miss Hardwick, 8-6, 8-6, but for 15 breathless minutes 12,371 persons thought a flaming spirit might defeat strength and skill. The British girl won four straight games before Miss Marble got the range and began to live up to her reputation.

The tennis troupe—Miss Marble, Miss Hardwick, Don Budge, and Bill Tilden-rides westward today to start a 60-city tour at Chicago Wednesday night. They lured $25,614 into Promoter Jack Harris' cash register Monday night and Miss Marble, guaranted $25,-000 and a percentage, seems certain to be $50,000 richer when the tour ends.

She made a clean sweep on the green canvas court in the Garden. After defeating Miss Hardwick she paired with Tilden and won a mixed doubles match against Mary and Budge, 6-2, 5-7, 6-3. Between those matches Budge and Tilden (still a great player for a couple of sets) blistered the court with Don winning, 6-3, 6-4. At times there were flashes of the

"ADVENTURES OF

36th Year as State

It was 35 years ago that Gilson Glasier, 705 Seneca pl., was placed in charge of the state law library, and "I have no desire to quit yet," he exclaimed Monday.

He replaced John Berryman, who had held the same position for 30 years.

"I never 'hought then I would some day pass his record, but here I am," Glasier laughed. He was graduated from the University of Wisconsin law school and practiced law for two years. He also was secretary to Justice R. D. Marshall of the state supreme court for eight years.

Pro Grid League Rehires Six Officials

DAYTON, Ohio —(U.P.)— Pres. Carl L. Storck of the National Professional Football League announced today that six officials who worked eastern division games last year have been signed for the 1941 season. Those with whom agreements were William H. Friesell, Tommy Hughitt, E. E. Miller, Larry Con-over, Harry G. Robb, and Charlie Berry.

Officials for the league's western division have not yet been selected. Storck said a new plan would be instituted whereby officials would work under a rotating sysvelt Jan. 20, and to return to his
