Armory Work Starts

PLATTEVILLE - A construction gang working in two shifts started work last week on Platteville's new $85,000 armory which will be the home of Co. M, now stationed at Camp Beauregard,

Harry Schneiderwindt, contractor, said that to complete the building by June 30, it will soon be necessary to employ three shifts

Cost of the building will be oorne by the federal government and the city. Bonds will be retired by renting the armory to the state for national guard quarters. The city is floating a bond issue of $30,000 to finance its share.

Wheat Stocks Reported Higher Than in January, '40

Much larger stocks of wheat are being held by interior mills, ele-vators, and warehouses than were estimated for the beginning of last year, according to the crop report-ing service of the Wisconsin and United States departments of agriculture.

For Wisconsin, estimates show Saturday. that 140,000 bushels of wheat are with 98,000 bushels a year ago. Farm stocks of wheat are also much larger than a year ago. Approximately 165,167,000 bush- sell Oaks, "goofy gadget genius,"
