'The Ramparts We Watch' To Open At The State Thursday

Story Tells Of The Life Of An American Family During Hectic Days Of Before, During And After World War

The unique film, "The Ramparts We Watch," a film sea epic, "Captain Caution," will based on the American family before, during and after the World war, will be offered State theatre patrons commencing Thursday. Everyday life of war years forms the background for the film which authentically records our road to the first war. Co-featured is "South of Suez," while the concluding double bill includes "Arise My Love" and "The Quarterback."

Adventurous entertainment at its best is offered in Paul Muni's latest starring film. "Hudson's Bay," currently holding the spotlight at the Quilna theatre. In a role unlike any he's ever had, Muni scores solid hit with an effective portrayal of Pierre Radisson, the renegade who moulded an empire. Gene Tierney, Laird Cregar and John Sutton are featured. Thrills are plentiful in the Ohio's Gone With the Wind," but the stirring love scenes between Scarlett O'Hara and Rhett Butler.

as played by Vivien Leigh and Clark Gable, will remain longer in the memory of filmgoers. Others in the great cast are Leslie Howard, Olivia de Havilland, Jane Darwell and Thomas Mitchell.

Currently showing at the Lyric is "Chad Hanna," a story of circus life filmed in technicolor. Starring in this production are Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour and Linda Darnell.
