Joe E. Brown Seen In Dual Role In Hit Due At Lyric

Comedian Plays Parts As Meek Citizen And Wild-Cat Killer In "So You Won't Talk" Opening Tuesday

Joe E. Brown attempts a dual-role in the Lyric film due Tuesday "So You Won't Talk," and proof of his success is the hilarious film which features him as both meek citizen and wildcat killer. Frances Robinson is starred in the lead feminine role. The co-feature is "Babies for Sale," an expose of a vicious racket. Currently showing are "Wyoming Wildcat" and "Port of Currently offered at the Majestic theatre is Ann Sothern's "Gold Rush Maisie" and "Light of Western Stars," with Victor Jory and Russell Hayden in the lead roles.

Altho "Western Union," currently at the Quilna, tells the story of Edward Creighton it is the a short-lived marriage, annulled story, too, of Vance Shaw-a renegade who joined the telegraph project as a secut in an effort to life they have planned. lose his identity beyond the frontier. Randolph Scott plays the desperado to perfection.

No frontier story would be complete without romance, and "Western Union" brings together Rohert Young and lovely Virginia Gilmore. As Dick Blake, the thoroly disliked but much envied Harvard graduate who acts as survever for the wagen train. Young falls in love with Virginia, who portrays Sue Creighton, indispensable to her brother because of her knowledge of the Morse Code. Shaw, too, is in love with Creighton's sister.

Other well known personalities who have featured roles in "Western Union" include John Carradine. Slim Summerville. Chill Wills and Barton MacLane. Creighton's plan for building the telegraph over the West was to have one gang start westward from Omaha and another group eastward from Sacramento. They were to meet at Salt Lake City. Headed west, Creighton's wagon: train fights off Indian attacks, repels renegades and battles the heat of the desert and the snow of dangerous mountain passes. Building and setting telegraph poles in the ground. Creighton's men see complete victory achieved only after incredible hardships, deadly danger and spectacular adventure.

SIGMA

With James Stewart and Hedy Lamarr sharing romantic honors in one of the most interesting films to be shown this year, "Come Live With Me," is now at the Seldom has Hollywood produced a story so well fitted for its choice of stars. The plot deals with the plight of a beautiful Austrian refugee who marries a penniless young author in order to obtain a quota number and thus prevent deportation to her native Austria. The complications which develop from the marriage makes for extremely amusing entertainment. As the young author who finally decides to cease dreaming un plots and write from actual experience. Stowart is superb. His scene in the office of publisher Ian Hunter is one of the high spots of his screen cateer. Miss Lamarr as the girl caught in the web of indecision plus romance reveals a new side to her glamorous personality. She is real, human and sympathetic and does a grand bit of work thruout the entire film. In support of the stars is a noteworthy cast heeded by Ian Hunter who turns in his usual dependable characterization as the publisher who is certain le has an ortion on Miss Lamarr's heart until he receives the manuscript of a novel written hy Stewart. Verree Teasdale, as Hunter's wife, gives an ex-

LYRIC

Joe E. Brown's first comedy since the serious automobile accident which put him into a hospital bed for four months, opens Tuesday at the Lyric theatre. The film, "So You Won't Talk?", is said to leave no doubt that Joe is fully recovered, that his high comedy talents are unmarred, and his extraordinary ability as an athlete unimpaired.

In "So You Won't Talk?" Brown plays the dual role of a timid book reviewer and a gang baron for whom he is mistaken because they look alike. Frances Robinson plays opposite him in her most important role to date.

Others in the all-comedy cast are Vivienne Osborne, Tom Dugan, ited Tuesday with Mrs. Sarah Dick Wessel, Bernard Nedell, Anthony Warde, Jack Byron, Harry Anderson, Don Beddoe, Ed Laughton, Bruce Bennett, Helen Troy and Charles Wilson.

"Babies for Sale," sensational expose of the "adoption" racket. will also open Tuesday at the Lyric theatre, Rochelle Hudson, Glenn Ford and Miles Mander play leading roles in the new film, sensational expose of the illegal sale of infants by certain shady nursing homes. Isabel Jewell, Joseph Stefani and John Qualen head the supporting cast.

HOW YOU CAN GET A REPAID IN 12 INSTALLMENTS AT A COST OF 4‡ A DAY

You canget $100 to pay old debts or other expenses if you can repay $9.46 a month for 12 months—Loans made without endorsers or guarantors — A simple, private way to borrow.

HAVE unusual expenses caught charges at Household's rate of 2% per you short of ready cash? Do you need money to pay old bills? If you have a steady job, you can reactly borrow $20 to $500-and repay in small monthly installments.

Suppose that you need $100. Find this amount in the first column of the table. Then read across picking out the monthly payment you wish to make. 12 monthly installments of $9.46 each, for instance, will repay a $100 loan in full. The cost, in this case, averages less than 4c a day. You may prefer smaller payments.

Only $4.46 a month for 30 months will also repay a $100 loan. The amount you borrow and the time you take to repay it determines the cost.

You can borrow $25 for two months, for instance, for only 76c. Borrow for less Installments in the table include all month on that part of a balance not exceeding $300, and 34% per month on that part of a balance in excess of $300. This rate is less than the maximum prescribed by the Small Loan Law, Every customer gets the benefit of this rate-whether new customer or former borrower.
