Plenty Of Action Promised In Two New Hits At State

"East Of The River" And "Cherokee Strip" Open Thursday; John Garfield, Brenda Marshall And Richard Dix Starred

Action is plentiful in the State pictures, "East of the River," and "Cherokee Strip," which open Thursday for a three day run. John Garfield and Brenda Marshall have leading roles in the former while Richard Dix is in the story of America's last fighting frontier. "Seven Sinners' and "Too Many Girls," end Wednesday.

"Kilty Foyle," current Ohio hit, covers an 11 year period in the career of a little stenographer whose heart is constantly getting in the way of her head. Ginger Rogers portrays the stenographer and others in the cast are Dennis Morgan, James Craig and Eduardo Ciannelli. Continuing to please Quilna patrons is "Western Union," a thrilling story of the early west filmed in technicolor with Robert Young, Randolph Scott, Dean Jagger and Virginia Gilmore in the leading roles. You'll see the many handicaps which pioneers faced in order to set up the telegraph sys-

QUILNA Latest best-seller brought thrillingly to life on the screen is Zane Grey's "Western Union," technicolor production which is now at the Quilna theatic. A trigger- is sure that it is the Black Par fast action film of the roaring lot's work. West, it depicts the building of the telegraph line from Omaha to Salt Lake City.

Produced on scale, "Western Union" has a sucast headed by Robert Young, Randolph Scott, Dean Jagger and Vnginia Gilmore. "Western Union" opens in the boom days of Omaha. Answering the East's plea for a rapid means of communication with the West, a Western Union caravan under Edward Creighton (Dean Jagger) is headed Westward across prairie and plain where death strikes swiftly and silently as the arrows of the savage Sioux.

Drama and romance are deftly combined with the thrilling adventure as Robert Young and Randolph Scott vie for the affections of Virginia Gilmore. Told by the incomparable Zane Grey, greatest story of the West has been filmed with compelling realism and is recommended entertainment for all.

Others featured in the brilliant cast of "Western Union" include John Carradine, Slim Summerville, Chill Wills and Barton Mac-
