New Fun And Music Film Features Crosby At Sigma

Drama Of Orphaned Youngsters Is Current At Quilna; "Philadelphia Story" Continues At The Ohio

The phenomenal success of a novelty tune brings romance to a small town school teacher and a celebrated swing band in the new fun and music film, "Let's Make Music," starring Bob Crosby in his film debut, with Jean Rogers as his leading lady, starting Wednesday at the Sigma.

A splendid drama of America's orphaned youngsters, "Nobody's Children," is the current Quilna feature starring Edith Fellows and being shown with "Blondie Plays Cupid," latest of the Busmestad family pictures.

A fresher, wittier and brighter comedy of the life of the socially elite is the Ohio's feature, "Philadelphia Story," with Katharine Hepburn, Cary Grant and James Stewart as the stars.

The hygiene picture that offers a frank story of information concerning life is "Dust to Dust," the current Lyric offering. Shows for women and high school girls are scheduled for 2 and 7 p. m.

Co-starring a topnotch trio consisting of Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston and Preston Foster, the State's film, "Moon Over Burma" deals with fun in the tropics.

Majestic features commencing Tuesday are "Ole Swimm' Hole" and "Escape to Paradise."

Among the dancers of the Ohio theatre's forthcoming stage attraction, "Studio Scandals" are experiences that prove the effect of world events on other than the involved nations.

The Lucky Girls left for America shortly after the war broke out. They left from Copenhagen and four nights out were stopped by a British ship.

The next day the Scampem's Miss Babbs Flannery, one of the many beautiful girls appearing in Studio Scandals, unusual thirty-five people road show playing the Ohio Theatre in Lima for 1 day only—Fri., Feb. 28th.

One of the many unusual acts in the show is the famous Youman Brothers, the act that proved such a sensation at the Roxy in New York that they were requested to play for the President.

Concerning the show's starring comedy team, Edison and Louise, the London Times wrote, "The funniest act ever seen here."

The entire large cast a great variety of such top notch talent. Studio Scandals plays the Ohio Theatre in Lima for 1 day only—Friday, Feb. 28th.

couple seeking to adopt a child. They send her to a famous specialist, who operates.

The operation is more than a failure... the girl is thereafter confined to her bed, where once she was able to use a wheelchair.

Edith Fellows, in the major role, provides a splendid performance, and equally valuable characterizations are contributed by Billy Lee, as her brother; Lois Wilson, as an orphanage superintendent; Mary Gordon, as a warm-hearted housekeeper, and the other sterling members of the cast.

The overnight fame of a spinster school teacher who accidentally composes a sensational novelty tune, is the hilarious theme of "Let's Make Music," starring the celebrated band leader, Bob Crosby, at the Sigma Wednesday.

Discouraged by her prosaic class work in a small town, a middle-aged music teacher writes a school march which is so corny it is picked up as a novelty number by a famous bandman, who makes it a smash hit.

Despite the objections of her pretty niece, the spinster joins the band and has a fling at all the gay life she has missed.

In telling the story of the "Nobody's Children" air show, Columbia has added to it a moving, dramatic narrative of a crippled little girl and of her kid brother.

days on the screen. Ray Whitley and his Six-Bar Cowboys are also featured in the offering.

When you get your first flash at the well-proportioned figure of the most notorious killer and gunman the southwest ever knew, as impersonated by Bob Steele in "Billy The Kid Outlawed," the new Western thriller at the Lyric theatre Thursday, your first reaction will probably be that the ruthless shedder of blood was considerable of a dandy in dress.

For he was first a cowboy, before he started on the career of indiscriminate shooting and looting that made him famous as a terror and was a great favorite with the gals.

Sharing honors with Bob Crosby and his famous Dixieland orchestra are Jean Rogers, as the niece; Elizabeth Risdon, as the rejuvenated aunt; Joseph Buloff, Joyce Compton, and such popular members of Crosby's musical group as the Bobcats and the Bobolinks.

LONDON HAS ITS FIRST DRILL IN POISON GASES

LONDON, Feb. 25 — (INS) — London had its first poison gas test today and authorities concluded that if Adolf Hitler is depending upon such attacks for a successful invasion he is doomed to disappointment.

Hugh-st in Pimlico, an ordinarily crowded middle class district, behind Victoria station, was chosen for the test.

A harmless but extremely distasteful gas was sprayed afterwards rushed thru the streets with the rattles which will tell of a real gas attack when and if it comes.

All residents had been informed in advance of the test.

Pimlico Londoners put on their masks. Ambulances rushed by, theatrical casualties and poisoning victims to hospitals, and walls and furniture were sprayed down with anti-gas preparations.
