

Cavalcade Will Dramatize Edgar Allan Poe Mystery

Prize-Winning Amateur Song Written By N. Y. Music Instructor To Be Presented by Dorsey

"The Mystery of Edgar Allan Poe," which surpasses in exciting complexity the masterly detective stories written by that great author, will be dramatized by the "Cavalcade of America" over WEAF Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

An 11-year-old scourge whose abominable antics drive these around her to despair will crowd the mike during the "Manhattan at Midnight" drama on Wednesday, at 8:30 p. m., over WJZ.

Mr. Meek discovers more hidden talent about himself when he assumes the role of matchmaker on "Meet Mr. Meek," Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. over WABC, when an unexpected crisis arises on the Meek marital front. Frank Reich, Doris Dudley, Adelaide Klein and Jack Smart star in the series supported by Fred Allen's Star Theatre Players.

A New York music instructor is author of the prize-winning amateur song "Tommy Dorsey" features on his "Fame and Fortune" broadcast over WJZ at 8:30 p. m. Thursday. "My First Edition" was written by C. W. Bailey, a teacher at the Wurlitzer School of Music. Although Mr. Bailey has been writing songs since he was 16 years old, this is his first number to be published and recognized.

Newspapers, movies, magazines and radio make a commonplace of hiring high-pressure, brain-storming idea men. But an idea man for crime is something new! Such a character is uncovered by "Mr. District Attorney" in "Murder on Commission," the drama scheduled for Wednesday, at 9:30 p. m. on WEAF. A big-shot crime planner, who never actually suffers his own hands with the blood of victims, is finally cornered by the D. A. then he gets his big idea and things really start to happen.

QUILNA

America's most lovable family, the Bumsteads, are back on the screen again and they're funnier than ever! "Blondie Plays Cupid," latest edition in the popular Columbia series at the Quilna theatre and it's even more hilarious and entertaining than any of its predecessors.

Again featuring Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake and Larry Simms in the leading roles, the film opens with Blondie deciding that the family should go to the country to celebrate a safe and sane fourth of July. They stay in the country turns out to be anything but safe when Baby Dumpling lights a stick of dynamite, thinking that it's a firecracker. And the mad whirl of hilarious events centering around Blondie's efforts to arrange a young couple's elopement gayly turn out to be anything but sane. It's grand entertainment, tho, and shouldn't be missed.

Supporting players include Irving Bacon, Glenn Ford, Danny Mummert, Jonathan Hale and Spencer Charters. Directed by Frank R. Strayer.

Columbia's "Nobody's Children" splendid drama of America's orphaned youngsters, ends its heart-throbbing run at the Quilna theatre on Friday. Edith Fellows is featured in the film, which is based upon Walter White's coast-to-coast weekly broadcasts in behalf of the Children's Home Finding Society of Los Angeles.

Rhythm And Comedy Will Be Plentiful On State's Bill

"Little Nellie Kelly" And "Dancing On A Dime" Are Attractions Scheduled To Open On Thursday

With Judy Garland and George Murphy having the leads in "Little Nellie Kelly," which opens Thursday at the State, patrons are in store for plenty of rhythm and comedy. Also on the bill will be "Dancing on a Dime," "Moon Over Burma," story of life in a lumber camp in the tropics, and "I'm Nobody's Sweetheart Now," will show thru Wednesday.

"Billy the Kid Outlawed," featuring Bob Steele, will open Thursday at the Lyric along with "That Old Gang of Mine." "Dust to Dust," a hygienic picture, will show thru Wednesday to segregated audiences.

Showing thru Thursday at the Ohio will be "The Philadelphia Story" starring Ruth Hussey, John Howard, Roland Young, John Halliday and little Virginia Weidler. "Studio Scandals," described by critics as one of the best stage shows on the road will show on Friday at the Ohio.

Currently showing at the Quilna are "Blondie Plays Cupid," a film about the Bumstead family, and "Nobody's Children," a human story of unwanted kid. Penny Singleton, Larry Sims, Arthur Lake, Edith Fellows and Billy Lee are a few of the nobles in these productions.

"Let's Make Music," a story revolving around the amusing adventures of a lovable old music teacher, is at the Sigma with Bob Crosby and Jean Rogers having principal parts. "The Fargo Kid" an action-packed western hit, completes the bill.

These brothers, with their three instruments, offer imitations of Kay Kyser, Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman and others as they combine their intonations to produce the characteristic tunes and tones of America's ace rhythm combinations.

Comedy is provided by Edison and Louise, formerly with Ted Lewis, as they cavort merrily in an act of gaiety and hilarity.

The Lucky Girls, choruses of beauty and talent present the rhythmic dance numbers that have always characterized stage shows.

Young romance by John Shelton and Ann Rutherford, hilarious comedy by Frank Morgan and Virginia Weidler, and sentimental portrayals by Irene Rich and Sara Haden combine forces in "Keepin' Company," at the Ohio theatre on Friday.

The teaming of Shelton and Miss Rutherford brings to the screen two of Hollywood's outstanding candidates for stardom in 1941, both with their most important roles to date.

The phenomenal success of a novelty tune brings romance to the pretty athletic instructor of a small town school and a celebrated leader of a swing band in the new fun and music film, "Let's Make Music," starring Bob Crosby, singing maestro of the famous Dixieland orchestra. Lovely Jean Rogers supplies the heart interest in the Sigma hit.

The story traces the night life adventures of an elderly spinster whose frustrated life takes a new turn when a corny song she composed is bought by a New York publisher and subsequently used as a freak novelty number by band leader Bob Crosby. Because of its rural flavor it meets with instant success, making its composer famous overnight, both as a song writer and as an eccentric entertainer with the band.

The efforts of her pretty niece, a gym teacher, to keep the old lady from going overboard during a wild fling in New York, bring the young girl and the handsome orchestra leader together, and the warm romance that develops keeps step with the adventures of Deshaire with the adventures of a young cowpuncher who is mistaken for a notorious outlaw in the frontier days of the West. "The Fargo Kids" at the Sigma stars Tim Holt in an exciting outdoor drama. Much of the RKO Radio offering was filmed in the scenic beauty of Utah's Escalante Mountains.

When old Negro Ben needs backers for his throrored race horse, Blue Knight, the kids finally get Algy Wilkes a wealthy friend to persuade his father to put up the money. This gives Leo Gorcey, in the role of Muggs, his chance to become a jockey, but although he tries hard, an uncontrollable fear prevents him from bringing Blue Knight in.

The horse is a real winner, however, and Mr. Wilkes gives Blue Knight another chance. He offers to engage an experienced jockey, but Muggs refuses to let him. In the meantime, some crooks find out that Blue Knight is a winner and try to prevent his running in the big race.

First they try to buy Knuckles, older brother of the boys, and when this doesn't work, they try to buy Blue Knight's stable. Muggs

RUDY VALLEE PRAISES TALENT IN OHIO STAGE SHOW

Special Bargain Matinee Scheduled

Miss Jerry Donahue, one of the many beautiful girls appearing Studio Scandals, unusual thirty-five people road show opening at the Ohio theatre in Lima, 1 day only, Fri., Feb. 28th. A special bargain price will prevail until 2 p. m. so that many will come early to be able to tell others what a great show this is.

This out of the ordinary show features glamorous beauties and sensational stunts recently returned from a triumphant 20,000 mile European tour. Upon their return to this country, they appeared at the famous Roxy Theatre in New York. They have been breaking house records everywhere. And no wonder! Even the famous Billy Rose is said to have praised the girls as being the most beautiful and talented he had ever seen. One of the famous beauties created such a sensation in Birmingham, that the Birmingham Post gave her column after column of publicity, and wrote, "Miss Evelyn Willard is one of the most beautiful showgirls of the nation, and has the most perfect photogenic figure ever seen."

Speaking of the show's starring comedy team, Edison and Louise, the London Times wrote, "The fastest and funniest act ever seen here."

One of the many unusual acts is the famous Youman Brothers, the act that proved such a sensation at the Roxy in New York that they were requested to play privately for President Roosevelt. These Three Boys, by the use of various musical instruments, do amazing impressions of America's leading name bands. They play the music of Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman, Kay Kayser, and all the other great bands so realistically, that you truly believe you are listening to the bands themselves. If you want the thrill of hearing all of your favorite name bands at one time, that is exactly what you'll get when you hear the sensational Youman Brothers, the only act of its kind in the world.

The entire show is composed of such unusual talent. Studio Scandals plays the Ohio Theatre in Lima 1 day only, Fri., Feb. 28.
