TRANSPORT WRECKAGE LITTERS FOREST

A quiet forest a short distance from Atlanta was transformed suddenly into this scene of death and ruin by the crash of an Eastern Airlines transport. The plane was crushed into splinters, killing seven and injuring nine, including Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, president of the lines and World war flying ace. One wing of the plane was torn out and hurled into a tree top (background). Bodies of some of the dead lie under sheets in the foreground.

MY DEAR, HOW YOU'VE CHANGED!

A bleached blonde with an ingenue's smile—that was the Bette Davis at the right, a scant ten years ago. Along the trail to film stardom her sandy hair darkened. During the transition she landed a part in "Of Human Bondage," just missed an Oscar, captured one a year later for work in the famous sleeper, "Dangerous," and has caused scrambles at the box office ever since.

6 p. m.: Siferd-Hosselmann from 7:45 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Bob Wilson, Inc., from 8 a. m. to midnight and the Auto club from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.
