Badber athletes will be allowed to spread their annual 28 credits of school work over a summer sesrange, winning its fifth straight sion as well as two regular semesmatch and defeating Brodhead, 1433-1421. Madison's record in ulty members decided Monday.

Adopting a recommendation of its university committee, the faculty reduced the minimum number of credits required for a work" study program from 14 to 12 credits in any one semester for those students who are able to maintain a "C" or "fair" average and at the same time gain sufficient credits during each year to keep up with their class.

The total minimum number of credits which would thus have to be earned annually, including both regular and summer session, continues to be 28 credits, the recommendation provided.

For all other students engaged in extra-curricular activities the minimum "full work" schedule continues to be 14 credits per semester. Under previous rules, all students engaged in extra-cur-ricular activities, such as inter-collegiate athletics, had to carry a minimum study program of 14 credits per semester, with no exceptions, to be eligible.

The new "full work" legisla tion permits a student to carry 12 credits during either semester of the school year, and either four or fame in his two years with the St. Louis Cardinals is a reputation six credits in the following summer school, to gain a total of 28 or in the National league. Columbus Players Hurt in Crash

Returning from a victorious basketball game, three Columbus and two Waterloo youths were injured on Highway 51 East of De-Forest Monday night when their car crashed into an embankment.
They were Roger Austin,

21, Russell Farr, 19, and Lester Henning, 21, all of Columbus, and Wilbur Stark, 23,, and Elmer Stark, 20, both of Waterloo.
The basketball players, members of a part time agricultural class at Columbus, had just won game from a DeForest agricultural group, They missed the turn at the junction of 51 and County Trunk V and hit the embankment. All were severely cut and bruised and Wilbur Stark has a broken leg. They were treated by Dr. E.

P. Carlson, DeForest, and then brought to Methodist hospital. There were said to be no witnesses to the accident. The injured youths were discovered by William Anderson and Donald Stiemke, DeForest boys who had met them on the basketball court a short while before.
