at 100 Teams for Pin Meet

Eighty - eight Madison teams have entered the Wisconsin State Federation of Labor bowling tournament, it was announced by Robert Strenger, chairman of the recreation committee of the Madison Federation of Labor, host to this year's pin tourney.

Top honors for entries goes to he Truck Drivers' union, sponsor of 15 teams. Close behind are the Carpenters with 12 teams. Most local unions in the city are entering one or more teams and the employers of union labor are swelling the entry list by sponsoring teams. When entries close Sunday, Strenger believes that the original goal of 100 teams from Madison will have been surpassed. meet may be larger than either of the previous two, which were held in Milwaukee. Up to Saturday night 145 teams had entered from the state, not including Madison entries, or those from Wausau, Kenosha, and Racine.

Bowling will be at the Moderne Recreation alleys, beginning April 12 and ending May 18.

All local unions have been furnished with entry blanks, which should be mailed to John Strobel, secretary, Wisconsin State Feder ation of Labor Bowling assn., 2975 N. 56th st., Milwaukee, midnight, March 23.
