

"Melody And Moonlight" To Open At The Lyric Tuesday

Johnny Downs And Barbara Allen Have Leads In Hit Film; "Hullabaloo" Is Second Feature On Bill

Fun and music hold sway at the Lyric theatre Tuesday where "Melody and Moonlight," starring Johnny Downs and Barbara Allen spotlights the screen program. Jerry Colona, Frank Jenks and the "Kidoodlers" aid in the merry making. "Hullabaloo" is the co-feature. Concluding Monday are "Back in the Saddle," starring Gene Autry and "Little Orvie."

Offering a wealth of entertainment rich in stirring drama, absorbing romance and bright comedy, the new film of the modern south, "Virginia," starring Madeleine Carroll and Fred MacMurray, is currently at the Ohio theatre. The film revolves around a southern girl, trained in tradition, who returns to find a tradition creating a problem for her.

It's two-time romance for twice the trouble when O. Henry's romantic rogue, the Cisco Kid meets his double in "Romance of the Rio Grande," currently at the Quilna theatre with Cesar Romero in the title role. Starring Lloyd Nolan in the title role, "The co-feature," "Michael Shayne, Private Detective," is based on a mystery story. A fast-paced tale of a sedate young business man of the upper brackets, who writes detective stories as a hobby, is the Sigma feature, "Footsteps in the Dark," starring Errol Flynn, with Brenda Marshall as his romantic companion, the duo head a cast including Ralph Bellamy, Allen Jenkins, Alan Hale, Lee Patrick and Roscoe Karns.

How a sympathetic but blundering uncle tries to smooth out his nephew's matrimonial and business problems but only succeeds in further muddling them is the basis of "Mexican Spitfire Out West," currently at the State. Clark Gable and Hedy Lamarr are the stars of the co-feature, "Comrade X," a gay comedy of life in Moscow. At the Majestic theatre, Leslie Howard and Ingrid Bergman are featured in "Intermezzo," while the co-feature is "Tom Brown's School Days," commencing Tuesday are "They Shall Have Music" and "House of Secrets."

Movie-goers now can laugh and thrill with the two-fisted, tough and romantic sleuth "Michael Shayne, Private Detective." Now at the Quilna theatre's screen. This new mystery-thriller has Lloyd Nolan starred in the title role and lovely Marjorie Weaver heading a strong featured cast.

Based on a novel by Brett Halliday and paced for thrilling action, "Michael Shayne, Private Detective" is first-rate entertainment. Nolan plays the sleuth who is always on hand when everything happens and invariably gets into trouble.

Assigned to act as bodyguard for wealthy Marjorie Weaver, Nolan is found with her at the scene of a crime. He's the last man to see the victim alive and his gun is in the murder weapon. Touted as a case of course, but leave it to Nolan to come thru in a thrilling, suspenseful climax to crack the case and unmask the murderer.

Others seen in the featured cast include Joan Valerie, Walter Abel, Elizabeth Patterson, Donald MacBride and Douglas Dumbrell.

Alternating smart comedy and gripping drama, an unusually entertaining story of life in the modern South, "Virginia," is now at the Ohio theatre.

Given an excellent script, the picture's stars, ever-beautiful Madeleine Carroll and personable Fred MacMurray, make the most of it. "Virginia" is a gem for the first time Stirling Hayden, a newcomer to the screen. Tall and blonde, Hayden is a strikingly handsome young man with a definite flair for acting.

Beginning with the time Madeleine Carroll, as the last member of a proud old Southern family, who has spent most of her life up North, returns to Virginia to sell the ancestral home, the story takes us thru sharp dramatic situations, relieved by bright comedy, as she awakens to the great Southern traditions into which she was born. An overwhelming love for the soil comes over her as she appreciates of the genuineness and goodness of the people of the community. These feelings are encouraged by Fred MacMurray, as the scion of a Virginia family which has lived on the plantation next to hers for generations. However, Stirling Hayden, as a rich playboy Northerner, leader of the faddists from up North who seek to buy "places" in the South, scoffs at these sentiments. With both in love with her and offering two completely different kinds of lives, Madeleine finally chooses Fred MacMurray.

Johnny Downs and Jane Frazee, an "omphatic" new screen combination, are united in "Melody and Moonlight," which comes to BOSTON, March 24 (AP)—American legion officials, who visited England recently, have prepared a 78-page report detailing England's home defense methods which will be made available to defense boards throughout the country.
