Louise King sings lullabies on the NBC Monday Contended program, but she's fond of all music from swing to symphony. As a matter of fact, she was soloist on a Canadian swing concert, "Symphony in Swing", in which Oscar Levant was the guest. Gershwin's one of her favorite composers.

Mmmm! AND Versatile!

Versatility is Mary Patton's middle name. Now a popular NBC actress as Marie Martel in "Arnold Grimm's Daughter," Mary has been a dancer, a photographer and artist's model, a doctor's assistant, a secretary and a saleswoman, and has studied banking and foreign exchange, before joining the NBC Blue network.

English Theme Accepted On Phonograph Record

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — (U.P.) — Typing or writing in longhand seemed slow to Leon A. Danco, a Harvard freshman, so he submitted a 2,000-word English composition on a home-made phonograph record.

Dr. Claude M. Simpson, Jr., his instructor, gave Danco a passing grade after listening to the record, but forbade any repetition of the stunt.

"For one thing," Simpson said, "how can you correct spelling and punctuation in a theme like this?"
