

Radio News and Programs

Joy Hathaway, heard as "Amanda" in the NBC-Blue Network serial "Amanda of Honeymoon Hill", is as versatile as she is charming and talented. A former school teacher, she is a noted Savoyard; has lectured on Elizabethan music; achieved fame on Broadway, and performed on the lute with symphony orchestras.

Dr. Frank Black Airs New Symphony by Meredith Willson

Meredith Willson's Symphony No. 2 in E Minor, subtitled "The Missions of California," will be presented by Dr. Frank Black on his new American Music program tonight at 9:15 through WENR. The symphony is based entirely upon the Spanish missions which fostered the civilization of early California. Its four movements are titled, "Father Junipero Serra," "San Juan Bautista," "San Juan Capistrano," and "El Camino Real."

Hoosier Foes Arrive a Day Too Early
BLOOMINGTON, Ind.—(U.P.)—Indiana university athletic officials watched in amazement Monday while Indiana State Teachers college baseball players dressed for action against the Hoosiers.
Quickly double-checking contracts, they politely informed the Sycamores that Indiana would be happy to oblige them today, as scheduled.
The Teachers went home to Terre Haute, but they were to be back—today.

Lloyd Only Pirate Left of Title Team
When the Pittsburgh Pirates headed for training camp, Lloyd Waner was the only man on board who was a Buccaneer last time the Pirates won the pennant, viz., 1927.

Bobby Jones Favorite of Wildcat Golfers
EVANSTON, Ill.—(U.P.)—Bobby Jones, former national amateur and open champion, is still the idol of young American golfers, judging from the poll taken of members of Northwestern university's golf team. Jones was selected as the favorite athlete of three-fourths of the players, while Walter Hagan, another veteran
