Programs on Democracy

NEW YORK - The Women's National Radio committee will confine its 1940-1941 poll to programs furthering the ideals of democracy, Mme. Yolanda Mero-Irion of this city, founder and chairman, announced today. The reason for this change in policy on the part of an organization that in previous years has balloted upon the conviction that in a world crisis radio's role as a preserver of democracy transcends its every other function, Mme. Irion said.

past week to members of national the committee. These listed 52 committee have made an important contribution to democratic thinking. Recipients of the bal-lots were invited not only to vote upon these programs, but to suggest other programs which in their opinion are deserving of comen dation.

At the annual awards luncheon May 13 at the Hotel Astor, medals will be presented to the commentator who is considered the finest protagonist of democracy; to the forum which is adjudged to have served best the interests of democracy; and to the best educational and the best miscellaneous program of a democratic order.

The luncheon program will be titled "Salute to Democracy". It will open with a brief talk by the founder and chairman on radio's democratic function in the crisis, accompanied by a tribute to the networks for the way in which they have rallied to meet the challenge. This accolade will be received by David Sarnoff, president of the Radio Corporation of America, in behalf of the National Broadcasting Company; by William S. Paley, president, in behalf of the Columbia Broadcasting System, and by Alfred J. McCosker, chairman of the board, in behalf of the Mutual Broadcasting System.

will then discuss radio's contribution to the furtherance of democratic ideals from three different viewpoints. Raymond Gram Swing, Mutual Broadcasting System commentator, will speak on "Radio as a Force in Education for Democracy in the United States;" Dr. Antonio C. Gonzalez, former United States Minister to Ecuador. Panama and Venezuela and Assistant Director of Latin America Relations for CBS, "Radio and Pan-American Relations," John Gunther, commentator on world and "Inside South America," will speak on "Radio and World Wide
