'Dime to a Thousand' Defense Bonds Subject of FDR Talk Tonight

Mary Livingstone, pictured here, achieved an ambition of two years' standing while vacationing at Palm Springs with Jack Benny and his gang of funsters. Mary toured the Palm Springs golf course in 38-hr first score under 90. And it cost Jack Benny two new chapeaux as the result of a bet made six months ago.

President Roosevelt will take to the air tonight, this time explaining the "dime to a thousand" defense savings bonds which go on sale Thursday at all postoffices. He will speak at 8:30 p. m. through WIBA and all major network stations of NBC, CBS, and Mutual systems.

Vice President Henry A. Wallace and three other party leaders will speak to the New York Young Democrats tonight at 9 through WIBA and WENR. Besides Wallace, James A. Farley, former postmaster general; Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the Democratic National committee; and Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, New York, will speak.

Elvehjem Speaks on Nutrition Here

Prof. C. A. Elvehjem, of the University of Wisconsin biochemistry department, will speak on "Vitamins and Normal Nutrition" at the 43rd annual convention of the Wisconsin Osteopathic assn. at Hotel Lorraine May 7 and 8. He is a speaker on the program which will include reports on public health problems and medical aspects of national defense.

Q. What causes homemade bread to become sour?

A. Abnormal fermentation due to the growth of lactic acid bacteria in the dough for too long a period before baking. To prevent this the rising of the dough must be stopped at the right point.
