Lt. Lowrey, Hero of Parachute Rescue, to Visit Bing Tonight

When most shows listeners' ratings were falling, the Charlie McCarthy show took a sharp turn upward in spite of spring. The talent line-up now includes Abbott and Costello, Donald Dickson and Robert Armbruster's orchestra plus the perennial favorites, Bergen and McCarthy.

Arrangements were made a couple of weeks ago for Lt. W. W. Lowrey, of the U. S. navy, to appear on the program for a casual chat about naval aviation. Then he more dinto the national spotlight with the dramatic rescue of Lt. Walter Osipoff from a plane in mid-air. So Lowrey's date with Bing Crosby was changed, and he'll be on the air tonight instead of June 5.

Other guests on Music Hall will be Kay Kyser and Humphrey Bogart. Regulars in the cast will be Crosby, Bob Burns, Connie Boswell, and John Scott Trotter's orchestra. Miss Boswell will make her delayed debut as a cellist, playing "The Swan."

Other attractions tonight:

DOG MOTHERS POSSUMS

HANFORD, Calif. - (U.P.) Fuzzy, 12-year-old Pekinese dog, belonging to M. S. Reeves, mothered five baby possums from the time their real parent died until they could be fed milk and liver. The young possums have been domesticated without difficulty.

WORK HORSE REDEEMED

OMAHA, Neb.-(U.P.)-Sam Katelman put $2 on his work horse, Babe, not to win, place or show, but to get her out of hock at the police station. Babe, hitched to her wagon, was parked in a downtown alley. A motorcycle officer tied a rein to his vehicle and "towed Babe in."

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The Philadelphia Academy Corp. was criticized Wednesday by Rep. Tells of Ouster

LOS ANGELES —(U.P.)— Marion Talley, former opera star, lesti-fied Wednesday for more than three years she "was afraid" to seek her baby, and when she did, she was bodily thrown out of her estranged husband's sister's home in Mamaroneck, N. Y.

She said from a month after Susan's birth in April, 1935, until early in 1939, when she left Holly-wood she was intimidated by prosof legal retaliation by Adolph Eckstrom, Susan's father-She cited as instance his lawyer's demand for $150,000, while secretly holding Susan as a "pawn"; and Eckstrom's later charges that she had been guilty of misconduct with eight prominent men. However, in 1939 she learned from private detectives that the child was living with Eckstrom's sister, Mrs. Ruth Nelson, at Mamaroneck. "When I went up to the house and greeted Mrs. Nelson I told her, 'Ruth, I've come to take Susan, then I took hold of Susan and asked Mrs. Nelson to give weapon — nor even a dangerous one. A Salt Lake city resident sued the city for $5,000 damages her to me and she said no. finally asked us in the house and phoned Mr. Eckstrom and told him I was there to take the baby, After she finished talking to Mr. Eckstrom, she threw me bodily out of the house."

"You mean she threw you out physically?" asked the attorney. "Very physically."
