

Radio News and Programs Baer-Louis Fight, U. W. Song Tourney on Air Tonight

Alice Frost, pictured here, was recently renewed as star of 'Big Sister' on CBS. It was her 21st renewal in five years, probably a record. Arch Oboler calls her one of the finest actresses in radio.

Three contests—involving gloves, wits, and music—will be broadcast tonight. At 8:30 p. m., Deems Taylor will take over Clifton Fadiman's job as quizmaster in Information Please, with Fadiman in an opposite corner with John Kieran, Oscar Levant, and Franklin P. Adams. The program will be carried by WMAQ.

At 7:30, WIBA will broadcast the finals in the University of Wisconsin's annual Tournament of Song on the Memorial Union terrace. And at 8:30, Sam Taub and Bill Stern will bring to WENR listeners a verbal picture of the world championship boxing bout between Joe Louis and Buddy Baer.

Other attractions tonight: Discussion 8:30 p. m.—Sen. Burton K. Wheeler (D. Mont.): (WIBA, WMAQ); "Peace—Not War." 10 p. m.—Charles A. Lindbergh (WGN): rebroadcast of New York speech for America First committee.
