Monroe Man Placed on Bail in False Pretenses Case

Superior Judge Roy H. Proctor Saturday entered a plea of not guilty for Will Hite, Monroe, on a charge of obtaining $600 by false pretenses from Carl Damson, r. 2, Oregon. Damson said he was supposed to have exclusive right for southern Dane county in the sale of feed he purchased from Hite, and then found it had been given to another man. Hite said the other man could not handle the territory because of other business. Bail was set at $500 and the preliminary hearing for 10 a. m. June 24.

Bergen Awarded MA Degree

EVANSTON, Ill.—(U.P.)—Northwestern university, at its 83rd annual commencement exercises, Saturday awarded an Honorary Master of Arts degree to one of her sons who has achieved fame for infusing personality into a wooden dummy.

In bestowing the honor upon Edgar Bergen, Pres. Franklin Bliss Snyder cited the ventriloquist-manipulator of Charlie McCarthy as one "who, through the combination of mind, imagination and skill has given many millions of moments of forgetfulness of pain and trouble, fresh laughter and hours of delight; who has despite his fame remained a humble man, grateful for his success." Bergen hoped his scholastic honor would enable him to cope better with McCarthy, who has been inclined to throw his intellectual weight about since Northwestern's school of speech made him a "master of innuendo" two years ago. He related the following conversation with Charlie which he vowed occurred before he parted with the dummy for his trip east. Bergen: "Education to the man is like the sculptor to the marble block." Charlie: "It sure made a bust out of you."
