Army Driver to Describe 'Blitz-Buggy'
Radio listeners will get a ride in a blitz-buggy Saturday when Defense for America is broadcast from a proving ground at Milford, Mich. A two-way pickup will carry to listeners the sensations of a driver as he puts the army vehicle through its tricks. The program, booked at 5 p. m. on WMAQ, also will include songs by a chorus of automotive workers and explanations of mass production methods used for army vehicles. Other Saturday highlights:

Nelson May Join City Plan Board
Ald. W. E. Huntley, seventh ward, will file an ordinance with the common council Friday night to place Edg. Commissioner Gordon E. Nelson on the city planning commission. The 1941 legislature passed a law making it optional for cities to place the building commission on the board.
